REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS

as follows:

The Committee of the Claims of Laity to Seats respectfully reports that after notice on the floor of the Convention, it held a session in the Church House. The only representative present from any Church in default was from S. Luke, Chadds Ford.

The Committee was furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese with his reports, and also by the Executive Secretary of the Diocese with a report, and based upon these, the Committee respectfully recommends as follows: That the following assessments for the Episcopal and Convention Funds be cancelled: Emmanuel, Kensington, 1918-1920, $257.86; S. John, Northern Liberties, 1921, $85.98; S. John, Free, 1918-1920, $380.00; S. Luke, Chadds Ford, 1918-1919, $25.00; S. Andrew, West Vincent, 1921, $19.00; and that the right of representation in the Convention be restored to the above Parishes.

Of the above Churches, Emmanuel, Kensington, and S. John, Northern Liberties, have had no rector for three years, but have recently been reorganized. The same situation has existed for two years at S. Luke, Chadds Ford, which also has a new rector, and all these Churches should have an opportunity to meet their present obligations without being hampered by past accumulations when no one was in full charge.

Regarding S. Luke, Kensington, from which is due for 1919, $196.26, the Committee recommends that since this Church is only in arrears for 1919 the payment of these assessments be deferred and that any representatives from this Church be seated in this Convention.

To clear up the Treasurer's books, the Committee recommends that the following assessments be cancelled: Transfiguration, 1915-1921, $474.24; Advent, Philadelphia, 1918-1921, $302.37. The Convention declares that their right of representation has been forfeited and due notice having been given to present their claims, the Committee feels that the action of the Convention should stand and makes no recommendation for their restoration.

As to Emmanuel, Holmesburg; S. Thomas, Philadelphia; Grace, Hulmeville, the Committee invites any representative from these Parishes to at once appear before the Committee in the Church House where the Committee will now hold a session and gives notice that if no representative appears, the Committee will make no recommendation to change the action of the Convention taken with reference to them.

S. Stephen, Norwood, has just paid its 1921 assessment to the Sustentation Fund. It has not paid the 1921 assessment to the Episcopal or Convention Funds, but the Committee feels that this perhaps has been due to some misunderstanding and recommends that its right to representation in the Convention be restored with the understanding that its assessments will be paid promptly.

Signed. L. B. RUNK, Chairman.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne asked that S. Andrew, West Vincent, be omitted from the recommendations of the Report, and the Committee agreed.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on February 3, 1922, on the call of the Convener, The Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, and organized by electing The Rev. J. O. McIlhenny as Chairman and The Rev. W. C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee has held several meetings and has considered the applications for approval of Charter and admission into union with the Convention of "The Church of S. Barnabas, Haddington," Philadelphia, and "S. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, Wissinoming," Philadelphia.

The Committee finds that these Churches are congregations having their places of worship at Sixty-fourth Street and Haverford Avenue, Philadelphia, and at Comly and Dittman Streets, Philadelphia, respectively, and that both have been duly organized in conformity with the Canon of the Diocese regulating the organization of new Parishes.

That the Church of S. Barnabas, Haddington, has been duly incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, and that S. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, Wissinoming, intends to present the proposed Charter to the proper Court for immediate incorporation.

That each Charter is in proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter, and that each conforms to the requirements of the Canons and of Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

Each Charter and application has been approved by the Bishop and Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that each be approved by the Convention and that the said Churches be admitted members of the Convention.

The Committee on Charters further reports that they have considered the application of "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Thomas' Church, in Whitemarsh Township, Montgomery County" for approval of a proposed amendment to the Charter, changing the name of the corporation to "S. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh" and making sundry changes in the articles.

The proposed amendments make the Charter conform substantially with the approved Form of Charter. They conform to all the requirements of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. They have been approved by the Bishop and Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters recommends that they be approved by the Convention.

By order of the Committee,

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendments to Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution, proposed by the Committee on Proportionate Representation, as follows:

Amend Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution by omitting all that follows the first sentence ending with the words "Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese," line 7 of said Section, down to and including the words "and no more" in line 15 of said Section, and substituting the following:

(1) Each Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may, except as hereinafter provided, send to the Convention one Lay Deputy and so many additional Lay Deputies in relation to the number of communicants of said Church as the Convention may from time to time prescribe by Canon; but no Church shall be entitled to send more than seven Lay Deputies.

(2) A canonically established and organized Mission having one hundred or more communicants, registered and worshipping in such Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy; but the Convention may provide by Canon for additional Lay Deputies from such Mission.

(3) When any Church, theretofore a member of the Convention shall be adopted as a Mission, its representation shall thereafter be only that of a canonically established and organized Mission, as hereinbefore prescribed.

(4) Any canonical prescription as to the number of Lay Deputies a Church or Mission may send to the Convention shall be changed only at a stated Annual Convention and by the affirmative vote of at least three-fifths of the members of each Order present and voting by Orders.

(5) Lay Deputies shall be communicants of this Church and shall be chosen from the Vestry or from the Congregation of the Church or Mission which they represent.

(6) The Convention may prescribe by Canon the method by which Lay Deputies shall be chosen by Churches and Missions, but such methods of election shall not apply in cases where they are inconsistent with the Charters of Churches already members of the Convention.

(7) Lay Deputies, whether voting by Orders or otherwise, shall vote as individuals, except in final action upon proposed changes in the Constitution. In such final action only the Lay deputations of Churches which have been admitted as members of the Convention shall be entitled to vote as the Lay Order, and each such Lay deputation shall then have one vote and no more.

(8) Until otherwise prescribed by Canon the number of Lay Deputies which any Church may send to the Convention and the method of their election shall remain as heretofore.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the following Resolution, which was adopted (see p. 36):

WHEREAS, The Trustees of the Diocese are, or shortly will be, in possession of a sum of money, approximately $10,000, the proceeds of the sale of the property of the Church of The Evangelists;

AND WHEREAS, The Deed of Trust, under which the Trustees aforesaid held title to the above named property, provides, inter alia, that in case of the sale of the property it shall be lawful for the Trustees to devote the proceeds "to any use or purpose of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese to which it would be proper that funds held in trust for the said Diocese may be applied";

Be it Resolved, That the Trustees of the Diocese be, and hereby are, requested to invest and keep invested the said $10,000, and, until further request from the Convention, to pay the income thereof to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to be expended by him, under direction of the Executive Council, for the reduction of mortgages on the properties of Missions of the Diocese.

The Rev. A. J. Arnold read the

REPORT OF THE EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

(See Appendix M, p. 320)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the annual report of the Board of Examining Chaplains be printed in the JOURNAL.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay bills incurred by the Examining Chaplains in their work, when properly certified by the officers of the Board, provided that the total expenditure involved shall not exceed $150 for the Convention year.

The Bishop nominated the following to serve on the Board of Examining Chaplains for the term expiring in 1925:

The Rev. A. J. Arnold — The Rev. J. A. Montgomery

The Rev. R. K. Yerkes

On motion, the Convention confirmed the nominations.

Mr. C. R. Woodruff, for the Department of Social Service, presented a Supplemental Report as follows and asked for its endorsement:

"With reference to widespread disregard of the law-enforcing the 18th Amendment to the National Constitution, the Social Service Department calls the attention of members of the Church to the following statement of the Judiciary Committee of the American Bar Association, which has been endorsed by Bishop Manning in his address to the New York Convention, and by other leaders of the Church:

"'One other plain statement should be made. The prevalence of lawlessness, in all its forms and among all classes, is alarming to those who care for the welfare of their country and humanity. The Congress and State Legislatures are trying to suppress it by increasing the number of courts and policemen. The Judicial Section of the American Bar Association, venturing to speak for all the judges, wishes to express this warning to the American people: Reverence for law and enforcement of law depend mainly upon the ideals and customs of those who occupy the vantage ground of life in business and society. The people of the United States, by solemn constitutional and statutory enactment, have undertaken to suppress the age-long evil of the liquor traffic. When, for the gratification of their appetites or the promotion of their interests, lawyers, bankers, great merchants and manufacturers, and social leaders both men and women disobey and scoff at this law—or any other law—they are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide. They are sewing dragon's teeth and need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save their country or humanity from reaping the harvest.'"

The Rev. G. G. Bartlett offered the following Resolution which was adopted, on division Ayes 77, Noes 64.

Resolved, That the Supplemental Report be Laid on the Table.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Resolution.

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania hereby expresses its conviction that the 18th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and the laws whereby it is enforced are entitled to our loyal obedience, and that the privilege which all citizens enjoy of working for their repeal does not excuse any man from the duty of obeying them while they are unrepealed, or from the obligation of condemning all violations of those laws as an injury to our institutions and disloyalty to our Country.

Mr. Harold Goodwin offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Strike out the words "18th Amendment" and substitute therefor the words "all Amendments."

Dr. Grammer's Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention approves the plan by which a Diocesan Secretary of Religious Education should be selected by the Department of Religious Education, and appointed by the Council;

Provided, That the funds for salary and expenses can be secured without call upon the Diocese, either by the Cathedral Chapter, or out of balances in Diocesan funds available for forward work, or by a combination of these two resources; and

Provided further, That the amount of said salary and said expenses, and the definition of the duties of such Secretary, be determined by the Council either directly, or through its Department of Religious Education.

Dr. Caley offered the following Resolution:

WHEREAS, There seem to be some apparent mis-statements concerning the history of the Anglican Church, both in England and in America, in the textbooks used in the Public Schools in the Diocese of Pennsylvania;

Personnel

We shall miss in this Convention a number of familiar faces, accustomed leaders, trusted advisers and loved friends. Some have been claimed by death; some are held back by sickness; others have been called or sent to different fields of work. I doubt not we shall be keeping them in mind. I wish there might be fewer voluntary changes; less coming and going; a greater continuity in pastorates; a more stable Diocesan Clergy list. We should gain much in momentum and in unity. Yet I am most glad to welcome those who have newly come. This last year especially we have drawn from other Dioceses leading and gifted men whose records of service have given them already high standing in the Church. And among them are laymen as well as clergy. We should make them speedily and heartily at home with us; giving them "ad eundem" rank among us, as the phrase goes in academic institutions. I would venture to say of our whole Diocesan personnel, that it has never on the average been so competent for its work as it is now. We should be sincerely thankful and be ready for greater tasks and quicker progress.

Under the head of personnel I want to pay tribute to the Bishop of Alaska, who took my work for the greater part of Lent. My personal disappointment at my enforced absence was compensated by his presence which was your gain. For the Church has no purer Christian character, no more single-hearted servant, no more Apostolic leader than Bishop Rowe. He has left a blessing behind him in many Parishes and lives. He has made new friends to add to the long list of his old ones. What in a sense pleases me most of all is that he thoroughly enjoyed it. I am glad that for a while he was your Bishop and that he liked it. I thought he would.

Administration

Our new method of administration, with the Executive Council at the centre, a body thoroughly representative and democratic, has made real progress in the right direction for the best interests of the Church.

Good administration should prove itself especially in co-ordination and in distribution. It should effectively correlate all lines of work and it should effectively distribute supplies and energy. Our effort for improved administration in this Diocese has shown what an immense field there is to be administered; how far the Church could reach; how great might be its influence, were its resources really developed and applied. It is growing on us as a fascinating vision; all that this church might do for itself and for the whole community. And there is no reason at all why the vision may not be realized if faith hold fast and service follows it. Meanwhile, there have been real advances made. Co-operation among our institutions has been fostered to the great benefit of all. Especially has the fine work done last summer by the Ways and Means Committee of the Council given proof that all our institutions are now a common charge upon our interest and support. And the Central Office is steadily justifying itself as a meeting place and clearing house and power station.

The new Church House has also justified itself already to a remarkable degree. The workers and organizations of the Diocese resort to it in much larger numbers, and with much more enthusiasm than was the case at our old headquarters at Twelfth and Walnut Streets.

Nation-Wide Campaign

The progress of the Nation-Wide Campaign in this Diocese for its second year, i. e., in 1921, will be covered by the Report of the Executive Council and of its Ways and Means Committee.

I would say two things:

First, we did well, by special effort, to bring our offerings in 1921 up to the level reached in 1920. To have done less would have been hurtful to the church and unworthy of the Diocese.

Second, the pressure for more money, and yet more, and again more, should first be traced clearly to its true source before we reckon with it. It is very human to protest and to complain. But of what do we complain? Against what or whom do we protest? Is this insistent demand on our pocketbooks simply the result of an arbitrary programme of our Church officials? Or is it in very truth the movement of the Holy Spirit in the Body of the Church? Certainly, Brethren, all the demands that come are easily within our resources if we have a ready will. Nor can there be any doubt at all that all of them are insistently required by the needs and sufferings and opportunities of our contemporary world. God grant that we be not found resisting His Holy Spirit in this matter.

Women's Work

The work of our women has no place in this Convention except for a paragraph or two in my annual address. The anomaly of this strikes me with special force just now. For I have very lately had some vivid impressions of what the women of the Church are doing. Let me sketch briefly four pictures which have been printed on my mind during the last few days.

First, a monthly meeting of the Woman's Diocesan Committee which I addressed. There were upwards of 100 present representing some eighty congregations. This Committee works in connection with the Supply Bureau, whose busy offices are now in the annex of the new Church House, and are a scene of constant and bustling activity. From the Supply Bureau goes out through the Diocesan Committee a stream of materials cut into proper shapes to be made up by local groups of women for the use of hospitals and institutions in various parts of our Missionary field. The total of pieces runs almost to 100,000 in a year, and hundreds of women are drawn into this veritable network of useful and efficient service. Besides this special work, the Diocesan Committee is ever on the watch to help missionary and social service undertakings in substantial ways.

Secondly, the annual service of the Girls' Friendly Society. Branch after branch with banners flying filed into the great church, completely filling it, some 2000 of them, representing 5172 members in 80 branches. This great host is at work in the Church's name and by the grace of Christ to keep pure the springs of our social life. God knows what the Church owes to them. We seem to be content not even to inquire. But they keep at it.

Third, the Annual Presentation Service of the United Offering, held last week in the Pro-Cathedral, at which I preached. There were 500 present, all who could get in. They came from every corner of the Diocese. Their offering gathered during the past year came to $12,086.71, which added to similar offerings in 1920 and 1921, makes up a total of $57,186.19, which, with more to come, will be presented to the Church in Portland next September. These are hard times with money very tight. Yet these women are nearly $14,000 ahead of their own previous best record. There are more than 7000 of them scattered in and out of 180 congregations who one by one contribute regularly to this thank offering for God's goodness to His children. It is all done in perfect silence, which, I suppose, is why we men don't hear of it and never think of following their lead.

Lastly, the closing meeting of the Mission Study Class, filling one of our largest Parish halls. Reports were read and offerings presented. These classes are held in two series, in Epiphany and Lent. There were ninety-eight of them, numbering in all 1849 members who came out of 154 Parishes and Missions. I venture to believe that all of them, under the teaching they receive and in the reading done and the discussions carried on, learn for all time the lesson that faith in Jesus Christ means one thing and one thing only; namely, labor and prayer and sacrifice for the coming of His Kingdom. To feed into the Church each year this company of zealous and instructed missionary agents would by itself be a considerable work accomplished. Would that our men were caught in equal numbers in the current of that holy stream.

These are the four pictures, the four snap-shots, recently photographed upon my mind. Of course, they are not exhaustive; they are only illustrative of what goes on day by day.

I have said nothing of the four committees of the Woman's Auxiliary, constantly watching the fields and helping the needs of the Church wherever it is working at home or abroad; nor of the Guild of S. Barnabas for Nurses; nor of the multitudes of women who teach in Church Schools, serve on Altar Guilds, work at all kinds of social service. I have said nothing and therefore nothing will be said. For all this immense activity of our women comes before you only as and if I speak of it. The question of admitting women to the Councils of the Church is coming up for your decision. I will not argue it. I did that in brief last year. As you know, I favor it, not so much because the women have a right to recognition, but because I think the Church itself suffers by not recognizing them. In any case, whatever may be the proper remedy, is it not absurd that when the working Church (the Church Militant I mean, not the Church at rest, which properly belongs in Paradise) meets to take counsel for its work the vast majority of its workers should be not only excluded (or at least relegated to the galleries) but almost entirely ignored?

I would add that not only do the women put at our disposal an ever present and apparently exhaustless energy of service, but also they have shown an ability for effective organization which we men so far have not begun to match.

Cathedral Foundations

In the development of Cathedral plans the time has now come, I think, to begin consideration of the best method of relating a Cathedral Foundation to a Diocesan Convention. I put it in this abstract form in order that the question may be fairly faced on its merits and rightly answered. There are many precedents for us to follow, not all of them, perhaps not any of them, wholly satisfactory. It is an important and difficult matter which will require careful study. The recommendation of the Executive Council suggesting a committee of this Convention to confer with the Cathedral Chapter seems the proper step. I hope it may be taken.

Bearing on this I would call your attention to two important facts. First, that to establish an official relation between the Convention and a Cathedral Foundation will require new legislation. Our present Constitution and Canons do not touch or bear on it in any way. It is entirely outside their scope. For the Convention, in its lay membership, is an association of Parishes only. And a Cathedral Foundation is precisely not a Parish. It has no settled congregation, no registered communicants, no vestry. It is more like a School, or Hospital, or Social Settlement. It aims to combine all such activities and many more. Much of its time and labor is taken in gathering and administering large endowments. With us especially that is likely to be a chief activity for some time to come. So there must be new and special legislation, in the form either of a Canon or of a set of resolutions.

Secondly, the existing Cathedral charter is a mere skeleton, containing practically nothing more than is required by the law governing incorporation in this State. It gives the objects of incorporation in the most general and comprehensive way, and that is all. Meanwhile the corporation is competent to hold property and administer trust funds. At present its assets include rather more than $50,000 in building and endowment funds. In addition there is rather more than $150,000 of real estate and securities held by the Trustees of the Diocese for the use of S. Mary's Pro-Cathedral. That is to say, we have some valuable material to work on, not shaped as yet but ready to be moulded. The present location of the Pro-Cathedral, at Broad and South Streets, is still a handicap. But at least it takes the work out of all Parochial competition and gives it a Diocesan and genuinely Cathedral character. Its scope has widened and its usefulness is constantly increasing. The Cathedral League has now 3000 members in seventy-eight branches, and thirty or more associates of the Cathedral are rendering valuable help. I believe that in the next few months, in spite of the multitudinous demands for money, it will be possible to bring up our endowment funds to a point where they can carry not only the present budget, but also some new and much needed Diocesan expenditures.

Here I must note only outstanding things, and that in briefest form.

Signs of Progress

Our country work constantly gains in strength, under the leadership of wise and devoted men. We have a splendid body of Priests in our rural districts; men who, competent and gifted for more conspicuous positions, have chosen this field out of pure love for it. I want to do them honor and to exalt their work.

Work among colored people has taken on new significance in view of interesting and hopeful developments especially at S. John the Divine's in West Philadelphia, in West Chester, and in Coatesville. The mortgage on St. Augustine's has been entirely paid off.

Italian work in Kensington is flourishing, fairly crowded out of present quarters. And in South Philadelphia it is to be re-enforced to meet new opportunities.

Our work for Jews is now centered in a Hebrew Christian Synagogue, something which this church has never had before. The Bishop Suffragan will tell you more of it.

The Church Extension Fund has been doubled in the last year, chiefly by the steady enthusiasm of its efficient secretary. Each "call" now brings in about $3000. Let the good work go on. Let the amount and number of contributors be doubled or even trebled. Will not every delegate to this Convention sign up as a member before adjournment?

The Church Farm School has its new Central Administration Building under way and one new cottage has been ordered. The school now has about sixty boys.

S. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, and S. Barnabas', West Philadelphia, have become independent Parishes and are applying for union with the Convention. S. George's, Richmond, and S. Nathanael's will, I hope, next year be able to emulate this good example.

The beautiful new Zion Church at Broad Street and Wyoming Avenue is rapidly nearing completion and will be used for worship before this month is over.

Also Emmanuel Parish, Kensington, has its new stone church finished and in use on its old ground. I rejoice particularly in the help which the Diocese extended to this loyal congregation. It has brought them new life and hope.

The Parish of The Annunciation has reduced its mortgage of $16,000: a work of great faith and sacrifice.

S. Martin-in-the-Field, All Saints, Wynnewood, and S. Thomas, Whitemarsh, have new Parish Houses; S. John the Baptist a new rectory; Grace, Mt. Airy, a new organ, chancel and choir screens; S. John, Lansdowne, S. Asaph, Bala, The Incarnation and The Redemption, Philadelphia, new stained windows; S. Paul Memorial, a new reredos and altar rail.

Our Saviour, Jenkintown; Gloria Dei; Emmanuel, Holmesburg, and the Meadowbrook Parish have received generous gifts of money or of land.

There are many new undertakings under way at this present time, showing aggressive life and energy. But these can be better described next year.

Finally, I am glad to report that, chiefly owing to the strong efforts of laymen in this Diocese, the Philadelphia Divinity School has carried through the initial stage of its notable new plans. The first building, which in itself will provide for the immediate needs of the school except for dormitory and house room, is almost finished. It will be occupied by the School when the term begins next autumn. Thus a new day of bright hope opens for this institution. There are not wanting signs that this new beginning here marks, or at least is co-incident with, the dawn of a new day for theological education in the Church.

In this context I would also ask your generous support for the concerted efforts being made here and elsewhere to establish our five Church Colleges upon a strong foundation adequate to their increasing opportunities.

And I must add a word about two other institutions:

The Episcopal Academy which is greatly prospering in its new home and under its new head.

And the Church Training and Deaconess House, the best training school for women in the Church, whose students come from every quarter, except from Pennsylvania. This means a really tragic loss by our young women of the best kind of opportunities close by.

Personal and Parish Notes

During the year, the Rev. John A. Goodfellow has celebrated his fiftieth anniversary as Rector of The Good Shepherd, Kensington. The love and admiration of the whole Diocese, mingled with that of his own people, do give him blessing and God-speed.

Calvary Parish, West Philadelphia, and S. Mark's, Locust Street, have kept with due circumstance, each its seventy-fifth anniversary, and S. Alban's, Roxborough, its sixtieth.

I have spoken of the Admission of Women to the Councils of the Church. As you debate the question, it should be remembered on behalf of our women who cannot speak for themselves that they have shown an admirable spirit in regard to this matter. They have been reserved, restrained, fair-minded, altogether reasonable. The suggestion, which is made part of the report, that at first not more than one woman should be sent as a delegate from any Parish, is their own idea and their deliberate preference. I think that is eloquent of much.

Important Legislation

As to Proportionate Representation, I argued for it at some length two years ago. I will not argue it again. I am of the same opinion: that the true ideal of a Diocesan Church Council cannot be realized unless the whole body of our faithful people, as such, is fairly and equally represented in it. That can only be accomplished by proportionate distribution of delegates among the Church population. A meeting merely of chartered Parishes and on an equal basis, which is what this Convention is today, so far as lay representation is concerned, cannot, I think, be treated as really an equivalent.

I trust the new Preferential Ballot will solve for all time our former difficulties and delays in our elections. If it works not quite smoothly at the first experiment, I would ask for it enough indulgence to ensure a fair trial. It promises real economy of time without losing anything of value.

Capitalizing Our Loyalty

I am minded to make another effort to "capitalize," so to say, your loyalty to the Church which claims you as its members. I mean by "capitalize" just what the word means in business or trade; namely, to discover first how much interest and good will there is available in support of a given undertaking, and then to give that interest and good will the form of a permanent investment so that it may work effectively and steadily to promote the business in hand. The word "capitalize" suggests all this in a rather trenchant way. The language of commerce has its advantages. Our Lord did not hesitate to use it. It may be of use to us.

Now there is certainly among us a large amount of loyalty. We all acknowledge, to a greater or less degree, a feeling of attachment to, of affection for, the religious organization with which we are identified. This attachment no doubt springs from various sources and expresses itself in various ways. Human nature is a wonderfully variable thing and its variability is perhaps nowhere better shown than in the varied answers we should give to the straight question addressed severally to each: "Why are you Episcopalian?" But none the less we are such, all of us. And as free agents and reasonable mortals we are, or certainly should be, ready to justify our being numbered in this Church and not some other. We all then have good will towards that body known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That interest and good will is what I want to "capitalize," not in dollars and cents (though the process if effective would surely swell the dollars and cents in our treasury), but in the spiritual coinage of sacrifice and service.

Our Loyalty Is Unproductive

For it is quite evident that much of this Church loyalty of ours is unproductive. Nothing comes of it. It bears no fruit. It is there; it is real; but it is not at work. At the annual service for Vestrymen last Holy Week I sketched the vision of our whole body of Vestrymen, 1200 strong and more, burning with zeal for the welfare of the Church, and then contrasted that glowing vision with the rather dull and drab reality of familiar facts. Yet there is no question that our Vestrymen are sincere in their attachment to the Church and glad and even proud to hold their offices. I am not singling them out as notorious offenders in this matter. Far from it. I use them only as an illustration. For it is a general condition we are dealing with. It affects our whole body. Episcopalian loyalty is, speaking generally, unproductive.

What is the explanation and what may be the cure? I think we shall find both cure and explanation in a distinction which may be summarized as follows, namely, that Church loyalty should be rooted, not in pride in privilege, but in fidelity to trust. Our loyalty is unproductive because so much of it is mere selfish satisfaction in privilege enjoyed. Our loyalty would become a red hot center of heat and light, even of explosive power, if we could convert it into deep responsibility for the discharge of an urgent and most sacred trust.

Because Selfish

Now we do right to prize our privileges. They are very real and very precious. We have at our disposal a vast accumulation of spiritual riches; a treasure house into which has been poured, in which is stored, the experience, the devotion, the sanctity, the scholarship, the art of all the Christian ages. We are historic and traditional. We are historic in that, not any single epoch, nor any single dominating individual or group, but all Christian history, has certified our ways and given us our standards. We are traditional in that whatever in the Christian past has been proved by Apostles, Prophets, Saints and Martyrs, to be of

Our Privileges as Churchmen

God's good grace for the edification of His children has been handed down intact for the equal and secure blessing of the least and last of us. We have indeed a richness of holy privilege offered to us, not for our merit, neither by our skill or wit or wisdom, but purely of God's free grace and through the faithfulness of those who through all the centuries have first received and then have handed on. So we do well to be thankful and appreciative. I would we were ten times more so than we are.

But herein lies our special danger. Material riches are not the only ones which choke the soul. The same law holds upon the higher levels. Abundance of spiritual goods may sink us deep in spiritual selfishness.

Tend to Make Us Selfish

And I really think that is just what has happened to many good Episcopalians; and that it explains why our loyalty is unproductive. We praise the Prayer Book with quite sincere enthusiasm, as we compare it with what seems to us the crudity and tastelessness of other modes of worship. We are moved by the dignity and beauty of ritual and ceremonial and shudder at the too great informality and the unnecessary ugliness of other sanctuaries. We congratulate ourselves upon possessing Apostolic Order as something which gives undoubted distinction and prestige. And so on through the list. These are our privileges. And we delight in them for ourselves. For ourselves; that is the trouble; that is the root of our failure; that is why such a pathetic and pitiful result comes from what appears to be a generous emotion; that is why what seems a running stream proves to be a stagnant pool. The Pharisee, who thanked God that he was not as other men, was loyal much as we are loyal. The Jews who boasted that they had Abraham for father were in some ways like us.

To sum up, then, I do verily believe that it is our pride in privilege which makes our Church loyalty inactive and unfruitful. If this pride in privilege could be replaced by deep and devout fidelity to trust then and only then would our loyalty be converted into fervent and sacrificial zeal.

Fidelity to trust; see what it involves. It is worth thinking out.

In law a trustee stands in the middle, between the creator of a trust and those for whose benefit the trust has been created. And it is required of trustees, or "stewards," as our Lord calls them, that a man be found faithful. Apply this to ourselves as members of the Church.

First, it implies that all the good things we have come from God, and that, although they come to us, they still belong to Him. They are His property, not ours. That holds true of material goods as well; money, lands, brains, muscle, even breath. All are His, in strictest truth. But we are thinking of spiritual goods; the manifold grace freely bestowed on men in Jesus Christ. And it is immediately clear of our spiritual blessings that in bestowing them God keeps them as His own; that the title to them all remains in Him. For with His gifts God always gives Himself. These spiritual goods of ours would not be good; would have no value, unless God Himself came with them. Prayer, Worship, Faith, Sacraments, Church Order; there is nothing at all in any of them, or in all of them together, unless God uses them as bridges, or as ladders between heaven and earth, between His life and ours, over which He comes to bring us into fellowship,

All Our Good Things Belong to God

to take up His abode with us. What we call Church privileges are always and altogether the property of God, His own personal possessions. Clearly this will not make us think less highly of them; just the contrary. They will gain infinitely in value. But there will be a change in our thought of them. We shall be less ready to claim them as of right. We shall be more humble. The roots of pride will at least be loosened. A new sense of responsibility for the right use of what God gives will be born in us. Our privileges really God's possessions; God Himself coming with, present in, His gifts; that makes a difference to begin with.

What God Gives to Us He Means for All

And then next comes the necessary inference; the assured fact, that these spiritual gifts are given to us, not because we are God's favorites, but because we are men's representatives; that what God gives to us He means for all. It is His fixed rule to work on men through men. He creates trusts and makes men His trustees. That is true throughout His whole creation. It is true in nature as it is true in grace. For instance, God has created a trust of life itself, of human life, and has made men and women, fathers and mothers, His trustees. God is Creator; that is His first and greatest name; that is what Father means, namely, one who gives life to children. And to create life is God's unique and glorious prerogative. But none the less He puts His gift of life into a trust; He puts His own Creatorship into commission. No one is born save by the free consent and voluntary act of men and women.

With this fact in view, so plain and palpable, I often wonder why any reasonable man should stumble at the Church's sacraments; should find it difficult to believe that grace flows into souls through visible and outward means. Everyone has to be born first before he can have faith, or pray, or receive any grace at all. Yet everyone's birth is sacramental. Why should not a life so brought into the world by the Creator be similarly nourished and sustained by him?

God then in His Church has created a spiritual trust and made Churchmen His trustees. All that we have of good, all secure modes and methods of approach, all means of grace which have come down to us with the certification of the centuries and which we ourselves have verified; all these are not for us only, but for all men, held by us in trust and by us to be accounted for.

So the duty of fidelity emerges as the root and spring of loyal Churchmanship; fidelity to God Who gives, Who trusts; fidelity to men for whose benefit and blessing God's gifts are given.

Fidelity Will Distinguish Between Essentials and Unessentials

Now, of course, there is need of careful discrimination. Not all of our experience as Churchmen has the Divine mark; not all of it is of universal application. Many things which custom and association have made dear may none the less be outside of our trust; helpful to us but only human in their origin. Language and forms of speech, art and architecture, ritual and ceremonial, government and organization; these things, speaking broadly, are in themselves indifferent, unessential. They are not parts of our responsibility. We are free to use them or disuse them; to change or modify them. And others have an equal right to equal freedom. Such liberty in unessentials is a vital part of true fidelity. For it is as much a sin against fidelity to give Divine authority to a merely human custom as it is to reduce a Divine ordinance to the level of a merely human preference. This must be clearly recognized. The line between essentials and unessentials; between what is inside, and what is outside our trust, must be drawn with exacting faithfulness. But, having drawn it, it remains for us to turn to the loyal and devout administration of our stewardship. Here are these spiritual goods among us, with God's own mark upon them, with His potential blessing in them for all who have them not. And as to these it is required that we be found faithful.

And what are they? It would take too long to cover the whole ground. And concise statements are apt to err on the side of undue dogmatism. But there are familiar and concrete illustrations which will at least give point to what I mean.

The Prayer Book

First, take the matter of the Revision of the Prayer Book, now under way, and of great concern to all of us. Why is it necessary? What should be its aim? How should it be guided? Is the Prayer Book our book in the sense that none but us have any part or lot in it? Are we free to do exactly as we please with it? Or is it part of our trusteeship, something in which other Christian people, yes, and those who are not Christians, have an interest? As we answer these questions so shall we deal with its revision. Now, as a matter of fact, the Prayer Book is both particular and universal. Much of it, indeed, is in a strongly Anglo-Saxon vein and idiom. In places it bears the marks of violent crises long since passed, and of local controversies long since forgotten. All this gives it a particular and special character, marking it as our own. But it has another and a universal side, in that it links and identifies our worship with the worship of the Church throughout the ages. That is its noblest part, its highest function. The Prayer Book of the American Church is, or ought to be, not primarily a book of peculiarly American devotion, but rather a book of Catholic devotion (in the true sense) by the use of which American Christians may share to the full in the beauty and truth of the worship of the universal Church. So it is indeed part and a very sacred part of the trust committed to us. That has been the guiding principle of the Commission on Revision; and it is simply the principle of fidelity to trust.

Again, as to the Episcopate, or, more comprehensively, the Apostolic Ministry, which is the vital point. Is this Apostolic Ministry a private preference, something which we like for ourselves? Are we attached to it simply because we personally are more content if those who minister to us have been ordained by Bishops? Or is it again part of the trust committed to us and therefore precisely not a personal favor, not a special kindness, but something given into our hands for the common good of all?

The Apostolic Ministry

It has been a familiar way of stating the Anglican view of the Episcopate to say that it is necessary, not for the being but for the well-being of the Church; that while the Church can get along, it can not be thoroughly well off, without it. But that does not dispose of the question of trusteeship. This distinction between being and well-being suggests that we are better off than others. Whence comes that margin of superior advantage, that extra blessing? Have we ourselves contrived it? Is it a man-made thing? If so, we are surely in error; for we cannot bless ourselves. Does it then come from God? If so, it is surely meant not for us only but for all. For we are not God's favorites. He wills to give unto this last even as unto us.

I do not hesitate to say that if the Episcopate represents only a special blessing given to Episcopalians and meant for them alone, then I would urge that it be instantly discarded and disowned. And this on the clear and Christian ground that no sectarian preference or privilege should stand for a moment in the way of Christian unity and fellowship. A badge of special privilege is but a wall of separation. We must stand on a perfect equality with all God's children, claiming nothing, asking nothing but what in the Gospel of His grace and in the Person of His Son He wills to bestow freely and equally on all.

You will see, if you will stop to think, that it is the bolder and the higher view of the Episcopate which is really the humble and the thoroughly unselfish view. For it is not a privilege for our profit. It is a trust to which we must be faithful, not for our own sake but out of loyalty to God and men, in order that God's will may have free course and that under His will all His children may receive the fullness of His blessing. I urge this on you now because of the many misunderstandings which have arisen, and the many superficial comments and criticisms which have been made, since the Lambeth Conference of Bishops set this view of the Episcopate before the Christian world in their Appeal for Unity two years ago.

There are, of course, other illustrations, other instances no less pertinent, no less important. But these two: The Prayer Book and the Apostolic Ministry, will suffice my present purpose.

Am I not right in thinking that if fidelity to trust became the mainspring of our Churchmanship, it would rouse and release new zeal for Christian service, so that as Churchmen we should be foremost, and not hindmost, in missionary enterprise and in brave adventure for our Lord?

I have been emphasizing particular points which just now are in our minds, pressing for right solutions. But I would not confine your thoughts to these. I would have you take the whole world and the whole Church into your view.

The Larger Application

The present world is in chaos; political, commercial, social, economic; because men have no fixed center of principle or truth. They know not what or whom to trust. They are swept by emotional desires, some of them high and noble, as for instance the wish for stable peace, for social justice, for brotherly cooperation. But they dare not yield themselves to the current of their aspirations. So they make reservations; they are suspicious and afraid; they are profoundly distrustful of each other. The late Conference in Washington and the present Conference in Genoa have shown in a very vivid way these conflicting currents: the almost equal hope and fear which are sweeping through contemporary life.

And in religion, never perhaps has there been in the world at the same time so much spiritual sensitiveness and so much spiritual blindness. Any "setter forth of strange gods" can fill our theatres and our newspapers. The multitudes run from one prophet to another, with appetites unappeased and unappeasable, blind following the blind.

And social morality has slipped its anchor. The ethics of marriage, of child-bearing, of family life, are at the mercy of the individual. Each does what is right in his own eyes and seeks for justifying reasons afterwards.

And the common law is commonly ignored, whether by "hold-up men" and bandits, or by those "reputable" citizens who are determined that prohibition shall not prohibit them. On any reasonable view it may be called a stand-off between these two classes of present-day law breakers as to which brings the common law most into contempt.

The Final Duty

Fidelity to trust; that surely is the manly and the Christian duty of the hour. Faith, after all, means chiefly faithfulness; the will to hold on and endure, courageously and fearlessly; trusted and therefore trustworthy. May we be foremost in the van of those upon whom our Lord can surely rely; who will stand fast with Him as He stands fast by them; keeping faith with Him and with His Church; holding that which has been committed to us against that Day which shall see all things subdued to Him, that God may be all in all.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

TROY BEATTY, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Tennessee, died at his home in Nashville on April 23rd, after a short illness, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, graduating from the University of the South, he was made Deacon in 1891 and Priest in 1892. His first work was at Trinity Church, Mason; then at S. Andrew's Church, Darien, Georgia. In 1897 he became Rector of Emmanuel Church, Athens, Georgia, where he had great influence, especially on the students of the University. In 1916 he went to Grace Church, Memphis, where he was consecrated to the Episcopate on September 18, 1919. The election of Bishop Gailor at the ensuing General Convention to be President of the Presiding Bishop and Council left him virtually in charge of the Diocese during the whole of his short Episcopate, a responsibility which he discharged with great success.

Bishop Beatty was an indefatigable worker, never sparing himself. He was fitted alike by scholarship, priestly experience and vision for his large responsibility. Winning and lovable in an unusual degree, he made friends for himself and his Church wherever he went. In the words of the Bishop of Tennessee "His life stands out as a glowing example and open book for the world to read and gain thereby."

Of Priests of this Diocese:

HENRY GRATTAN GUINNESS VINCENT, Rector of The House of Prayer, Branchtown, Philadelphia, was struck by an automobile and killed on the evening of May 3, 1921, while on his way to visit a sick parishioner. Born in New York in 1861, graduating from Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island, in 1885 and from Union Theological Seminary in 1888, he entered the ministry of the Presbyterian church. He was made Deacon in the Episcopal Church in 1896 and ordained Priest the following year by Bishop Coleman of Delaware, being given charge of Trinity Church, Clayton, Delaware. Before coming to Pennsylvania he was Rector variously of S. James' Church, Paulsboro, New Jersey; of The Church of The Prince of Peace, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; and of Trinity Church, Athens, Pennsylvania. In 1905 he became Assistant Minister of Trinity Church, Oxford, Philadelphia, leaving there in 1908 to become Priest-in-Charge of S. Titus' Mission, Elmwood. In 1911 he was elected Rector of The House of Prayer. Firm in his own convictions, loyal to his friends, a zealous student, deeply interested in theological questions and in the movements of the times, his tragic and untimely death will stamp on the minds of those who knew and loved him the ineffaceable memory of his challenging and eager personality.

CHARLES CAMPBELL PIERCE, Rector Emeritus of S. Matthew's Church, Francisville, Philadelphia, died at Tours, France, on May 16, 1921. Born in Salem, New Jersey, brought up in the Baptist church and admitted to their ministry, he was Chaplain in the United States Cavalry from 1882 to 1884 and Chaplain of the Nebraska State Senate in 1885 and 1886. In 1893 he was made Deacon in the Episcopal Church and ordained to the Priesthood the following year by Bishop Thomas of Kansas. His first charge was at S. John's Church, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he was also Chaplain of the Army Post. In 1896 he was transferred to Fort Apache, Arizona, leaving there to become Chaplain General of the United States Army in The Philippines and Rector of the Church at Manilla. While stationed here he was elected Missionary Bishop of that district, but was forced to decline on account of the climate. After three years he was made Chaplain of the Artillery Corps at Fort Meyer, Virginia, where he remained until 1906 when he was transferred to the Engineers' Corps in Washington, District of Columbia, going with them to Havana, Cuba, for the Spanish War and serving also as Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Washington in 1907 and 1908. In this latter year he retired from the Army with the rank of Major and was elected Rector of S. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia. When America entered the late War in 1917, he was recalled to the Service as Assistant Quartermaster at the Schuylkill Arsenal and later made Head of the American War Memorials Commission and Director of the Graves Service with rank of Lieutenant Colonel. In 1918 he was elected Rector Emeritus of S. Matthew's Church. He was awarded the American Distinguished Service Cross and the Cross of the French Legion of Honour. Combining in an unusual degree the spiritual and the practical, robust in faith and character, a devout student of the Bible, a forceful, attractive preacher, and a loving pastor, he willingly spent himself in the service of the Nation and of his own people and won confidence and affection on every hand.

GEORGE POMEROY ALLEN, Rector of S. Mary's Church, Ardmore, died on September 21, 1921, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. Born in Philadelphia on January 9, 1845, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1869 and from the Divinity School in 1872, he was made Deacon and ordained Priest in 1873 by Bishop Stevens. His first Parishes were S. Luke's Church, East Greenwich, Rhode Island, and Trinity Church, Woburn, Massachusetts. In 1879 he became Rector of Trinity Church, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, where he remained until 1900 when he accepted the call to S. Mary's Church. Quiet and retiring in disposition, a brilliant preacher and most careful student, he inspired the hearts and minds of his people with a tenacious and appreciative loyalty and love. There was a stimulating and unforgettable aroma and atmosphere about him. He stood above and apart from the average and the usual. He had the great gift of distinct and dominating personality. He held a place in the Diocese and among his people essentially unique and memorable.

JOHN BUTTERWORTH HARDING, Rector of S. Mark's Church, Frankford, died June 27, 1921, in the seventy-first year of his age. Born in Montreal, Canada, receiving his early education at Phillips Exeter Academy, and graduating from Harvard University in 1878, he was made Deacon in 1882 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Williams of Connecticut. His first charge was as Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Baltimore, Maryland, where he remained eight years. In 1894 he accepted the call to S. Mark's Church. His long Ministry there was most fruitful in every way. He won the affection and esteem of all the people of that section of the city. He became a recognized leader in the community. The erection of the present beautiful church building in 1908 came as the crown and consummation of tireless effort and unconquerable faith. In Diocesan matters he took a prominent part, being a Delegate to the General Convention from 1904 to 1918, a Trustee of the Diocese since 1905, an Examining Chaplain, a member of the Church Building Commission and of the Board of Managers of the Episcopal Hospital. Many lives were claimed and trained for the Ministry of the Church by his influence and example. He had a host of friends. His power with men was remarkable. He was a leading figure in the Church he loved so loyally and has laid foundations among us which will keep his name and fame alive for generations to come.

JOHN THOMPSON CARPENTER, Rector Emeritus of S. Luke's Church, Newtown, died on January 11, 1922 in the eighty-third year of his age. Born in Philadelphia, and brought up a Methodist, he became a student in the Philadelphia Divinity School, was made Deacon in 1867 and Priest in 1869. He was successively in charge of Grace Church, Parkersburg; of Trinity Church, Centerville; of the Church of The Ascension, Burlington, Kansas. In 1882 he became Rector of St. Luke's Church, Newtown, where he remained for four years, when he accepted a call to S. Alban's Church, Roxboro. From 1888 to 1895 he was General Missionary in charge of the work in Bucks County, being compelled to give up this duty because of broken health. In 1907 he was appointed Honorary Assistant at the Church of The Incarnation, Philadelphia, a position which he held until he was elected Rector Emeritus of S. Luke's Church in 1915. He was the first Secretary of the Convocation of Germantown, being elected when the Convocational System was established in 1885, and serving for ten years. Earnest and enthusiastic, of gentle and affectionate spirit, blessed with tact and large charity, he carried our Religion to the homes of many scattered people and endeared himself to all he met and served.

FREDERICK JOHN BRYMER KEABLE, Associate-Rector of S. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, died on October 10, 1921, in the fiftieth year of his age. Born in Wimbledon, England, coming to this country at the age of seventeen, he had looked forward to the Ministry from his youth. The Bishop of Central New York sent him to the Diocesan Divinity School at Syracuse and made him Deacon in 1895. For 14 months he was in charge of S. Mark's Church, Jamesville, New York, becoming Rector of Christ Church, Sherburne, in 1897, where he remained until 1900, being ordained to the Priesthood in 1898. For the next four years he was Rector of Christ Church, Jordan, New York, accepting a call to S. Timothy's Chapel, 8th and Reed Streets, Philadelphia, as Vicar under the Rector of S. James' Church, in 1904. In 1909 he was elected Rector of the Church of S. Luke the Beloved Physician, Bustleton, where he remained until his election to S. Stephen's Church. He had keen interest in all civil and social matters. He was at heart always a missionary, and especially at home with children. He had a most loving and kindly disposition, a pastoral spirit, and a devout and patient faith. He made full use of all his opportunities of ministry. Everybody who knew him loved him, and in quiet, unostentatious ways he reached a large and constantly increasing circle. His loss is very greatly felt.

WILLIAM EMMANUEL HENDRICKS, a Priest of the staff of the City Mission, died on February 10, 1922, in the forty-third year of his age. Born in St. Croix, Virgin Islands, and coming to this country as a boy, he graduated from Yale University in 1908 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1911. In the latter year he was made Deacon by Bishop Greer, and ordained to the Priesthood in 1912 by Bishop VanBuren, Missionary Bishop of Porto Rico. From 1911 to 1914 he was Missionary at Fajardo in that District, accepting a call to S. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia, in 1914. Here he remained for four years, when he became attached to the City Mission staff. In 1920 he suffered a stroke of paralysis, but recovered sufficiently to resume active work, until the second stroke which resulted in his death. He was called upon to meet many handicaps and difficulties. He was always brave and hopeful, with a gift of pastoral sympathy and understanding. His humble and devout spirit bore rich fruit alike in character and service.

APPENDIX B

The Bishop Suffragan's Address

During the past Convention Year I have performed all the duties assigned to me by the Bishop of the Diocese, and a record of my Official Acts is appended to this address to be printed in the Journal.

I will omit all general references to missionary work, as they will be reported by the Department of Missions and the Executive Council, and will confine my address to a few matters of special interest to which your attention should be directed.

Church Work Among the Jews

The most important event in the past year has been the opening of our Hebrew-Christian Synagogue. For a long time we have been working among the Jews in this City, but without having headquarters. Through the courtesy of the rector of St. Peter's Church we had Bible Classes and other meetings in the parish house over a period of several years, and then in the basement of the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

For the last four or five years we have been looking for a place to be set apart exclusively for this work. This was secured by altering the rectory of the Church of the Advent, Fifth and Buttonwood Streets. We had the customary delay in completing the work, and did not get possession until the last week of the year, and the building was formally opened at a service held on February 25th of this year.

In this building we have ample accommodations for services, and we have class rooms for work among the women and children. Much interest has been manifested in the undertaking and an active committee of women has been organized to assist in the work. We hope to be able to give a good account of progress at the next Convention.

It is expected that the Missionary in charge, the Rev. John L. Zacker, will be ordained to the Priesthood in June.

Church Work Among the Deaf

The faithful missionary to our silent brethren for the past eighteen years is still doing all in his power to officiate at the services at All Souls' Church and to other deaf congregations in this neighborhood. He is a little better than he was a year ago, but his ill-health has been a serious drawback to the aggressive prosecution of the work. He has been greatly assisted, however, by his three faithful lay readers, one of whom is a student in our Divinity School.

In answer to the appeal at the last Convention, for assistance in educating deaf mute ministers, I only received $25.00. A few years ago we received annually $250.00 for this purpose. There is a crying need for additional missionaries among our deaf brethren, but it is extremely rare to find those blessed with hearing and speech who appreciate their blessings to such an extent that they give generously for training and educating men to minister to the deaf mutes. Since the Nation-Wide Campaign was inaugurated there have not been so many personal appeals made for this work.

There is, however, a larger work than our own which embraces the Province of which we are a part. There are four deaf clergymen who minister at many different places in the thirteen dioceses, and some of them travel thousands of miles every year to minister to their scattered people. The Province has authorized an appeal to be made for this work, and I trust that those who receive it will make a generous response. The Secretary of the committee issuing the appeal is a deaf mute student in our Divinity School.

THE VINCENT FUND

You will all recall the tragic death of the Rev. H. G. G. Vincent by accident, when the Convention was in session last year.

After the Convention adjourned we learned that no premiums had been paid to the Church Pension Fund and therefore Mr. Vincent's widow and orphan were not eligible for a pension. As it was then late in the week, there was not time to issue a general appeal; but I sent a personal letter to about twenty-five clergymen, requesting them to ask their congregations to subscribe to a fund that might be used to invest for the benefit of the widow. In response to this appeal I received almost $6,000. Others interested mentioned it at the Clerical Meeting and at some of our Convocations, and from these sources I received over $1200.00 additional, making a total of $7223.14. I also received a check for $100.00 the day after the accident, which I forwarded direct to the widow before I issued the appeal. I am appending to this a list of these contributions to be kept on file in the office of the Executive Secretary.

Bishop Rhinelander and I have discussed the matter as to the investment of this fund. We found that the annuity companies grant so little that we did not feel justified in turning it over to them. A proposition was then made to the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, to take the principal and to allow an annuity to the widow and to her son until he is of age. The Trustees of the Christmas Fund were quite willing to accept the money and allow a satisfactory annuity, the principal to revert to the fund after the death of the widow, if the Convention acted favorably on the suggestion.

We then sent to the Committee on Canons a proposed amendment to Canon VII, Section III: "That grants may be made by the Trustees to beneficiaries for whom satisfactory provision is made." The Committee on Canons, however, thought it was not advisable to recommend this for adoption.

The fund was temporarily invested last summer by Mr. Francis A. Lewis, in Treasury Certificates, so that it is earning a good rate of interest, but neither Bishop Rhinelander nor I care to assume the responsibility of making a permanent investment of this money or deciding what is the best way to secure an annuity for the widow.

The suggestion was made by a member of the Committee on Canons, to appropriate the principal in yearly grants until the son is of age, but we do not feel that this would be in spirit with the intention of those who gave the money to provide an income that would take the place of an annuity from the Pension Fund had the premiums been paid.

We will now ask the Corporation for the Relief of Widows and Orphans to receive and administer the fund in the form of an annuity, the principal to revert to that Corporation, and if it declines we will then turn it over to the Finance Committee of the Executive Council and ask them to take the responsibility of deciding on the administration of the Fund.

MORTGAGES ON MISSION PROPERTY

At the last Convention I referred to the great assistance pledged by the women of the Convocations of Chester and Norristown toward the payment of mortgages.

In the former Convocation, under the leadership of Mrs. Harrison B. Wright, a large sum had been raised. In addition to giving $600.00 toward the repairs of the rectory at Morton, the Convocation gave $3150.00 toward the reduction of mortgages. This was remitted to the Treasurer of the Convocation, enabling him to retire mortgages amounting to $7800.00, a saving of nearly $400.00 a year in interest. The difference between the amount given by the women and the total amount paid, was made up by grants of the Advancement Society and sums raised by the Missions at Drexel Hill and Highland Park for the reduction of their mortgages.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester is now raising an additional amount to retire other mortgages, and I confidently hope to report at the next Convention that they have carried out their expectations in full.

In the Convocation of Norristown $1,000.00 was paid on a mortgage at Royersford.

WELFARE FEDERATION

The Welfare Federation has not been functioning long enough to speak with any certainty of the effect on the support of our Church institutions now in the Federation, but formerly taken care of through the Nation-Wide Campaign.

Our Every Member Canvass did not take place last year until a long time after the Federation Drive was inaugurated. We did all in our power to co-operate with the Federation, and we urged our people to support it generously. It was our hope that every institution of our Church that could become a member of the Federation would do so, and would co-operate whole-heartedly in making it a success. Though the result desired has not yet been achieved, and some are disappointed at the lack of success of the financial drive, yet we firmly believe that it was a step in the right direction, and that Philadelphia must make a success of it, as in most of our other large cities, if we are to do our best work for the good of the community. We again express the hope that all our institutions will this year be found working in this united effort to minister to the needs of the community.

Your attention may be properly called to the fact that the City Mission is still on our own budget, as well as being a member of the Welfare Federation. This is due to the fact that we put on our budget a sufficient sum to care for the distinctively religious work carried on by our City Mission—that is, for paying the staff of clergymen who minister to the spiritual needs of the men and women of our institutions.

Even those institutions that are in the Welfare Federation may have to appeal to our people for assistance especially during the summer months, and if this shall be necessary, and you are so advised by the Executive Council, we urge all the members of our Church to make a generous response to such appeals, so that the work carried on by our institutions will not suffer.

CHRISTIAN WORK AT THE UNIVERSITY

I have had an opportunity to observe from time to time the good work that is being done by our chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania, the Rev. John R. Hart.

Among the students in that institution are many members of our own Church, a number of them not only earnest and devoted, but also able and willing to give addresses. It has become quite a custom of recent years to invite students from the University to speak in churches representing the larger denominations in our city, but it is very seldom that such opportunities are given in our own Church.

It would be a very helpful thing if a number of these young men could be invited to speak in our churches, and particularly to the younger people. We should know more about the Christian work that is being carried on in our University. We should know more about the problems which the young men and young women who attend universities have to face in these modern days, and we should utilize the earnest and consecrated services of the students who are able and willing to give addresses and to bear their witness to the faith that is in them.

CONFIRMATIONS

In looking over our reports it is evident to me that in many parishes and missions there are not as many presented for Confirmation as there should be. When we look back on the history of the Diocese for the past forty years, and the great increase in the number of communicants, it is quite clear that we are not keeping up a commensurate growth in the number of persons presented for Confirmation.

This is also true of the number of children attending our Sunday Schools. There are not as many Sunday School teachers and pupils as there were ten or twenty years ago.

I do not desire to give any definite details bearing on these statements. Suffice it to say that anyone who examines the record of Confirmations and the number of scholars in our Sunday Schools for any selected years in the last few decades, will come to the same conclusion. There are many parishes and missions in our diocese, where the average number presented for Confirmation does not equal one per cent of the number of communicants. The average for the entire diocese for the past few years has been about five per cent of the number of communicants. There are a few instances every year, where parishes and missions present for Confirmation more than ten per cent of the number of their communicants. It may be said that if the average in the diocese is about five per cent, then any parish or congregation regularly reporting such a number is preparing for the perpetuity of its work. But if we base our consideration of the subject on the number of persons in nearly every neighborhood where the Church is located, who are not members of any Christian Church and we want to fulfil the missionary ideal of the Church, then it must also be self-propagating.

I therefore make an appeal to the laymen of the diocese to co-operate to the fullest extent with the clergy, in ministering to those who have no connection with any Christian Church.

If all our parishes and missions came down to the low minimum record that some regularly maintain, there would not be a thousand Confirmations a year in the diocese. On the other hand, if all the parishes and missions approached more nearly to the maximum that is continuously maintained by a number of them, our Confirmations would easily be doubled.

I merely cite these facts to impress upon you that if we go on at our present steady rate of increase, we will continue to take care of our own, but we will make little impress on the growing life of the community in which we live. Let us together resolve that we will more clearly recognize, and endeavor to more adequately fulfil the primary responsibility of every Christian for the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth!

With a deeper realization of the responsibilities resting upon those who represent the priesthood of the laity, and a truer consecration on the part of those who represent the official ministry of the Church, let us go forward in the confident hope that God will stablish us "in every good word and work."

for permission to establish a mission at Wynnefield. This was referred to a committee for examination.

June 14, 1921.—The committee appointed to examine the site of the proposed mission at Wynnefield reported, and on motion it was resolved that in the opinion of the Standing Committee a new place of worship should be started in Wynnefield. It was further resolved that a lot should be selected, if possible, south of Wynnefield Avenue. A committee was appointed to confer with the authorities of the Church of the Holy Apostles, and to report to the Bishop.

Confirmed the nomination by the Bishop of J. Wilson Bayard, Esq., as Chancellor of the Diocese.

June 21, 1921.—In consequence of further information as to the situation at Wynnefield, advised the Bishop to consent to the establishment of a mission at the site named in the application of the Church of the Holy Apostles.

September 20, 1921.—Gave consent to the election by the Diocese of New York of The Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D.D., to be Bishop Suffragan in that Diocese, and to the election and consecration of The Rev. Herbert Shipman, D.D., to be Bishop Suffragan in the same Diocese.

Gave consent to the extinguishment of a ground rent at Christian and Water Streets by S. James of Kingsessing.

The Bishop having appointed the members of the Standing Committee to provide under a resolution of the Convention for the observance of the Tenth Anniversary of the Consecration of himself and the Bishop Suffragan, the Committee approved the plan suggested by a sub-committee appointed for the purpose, and the President was requested to prepare an address to be read at the Anniversary Service on October 25th, expressing the appreciation by the Diocese of the work accomplished by the two Bishops during the ten years of their administration.

The death of William W. Frazier, a member of the Standing Committee for many years, was reported.

October 4, 1921.—The following minute on the death of Mr. Frazier was adopted:

Our beloved colleague, William West Frazier, died August 24th, aged 82 years, and was buried in the Churchyard of S. James the Less, Falls of Schuylkill. At the time of his death he was the senior member of the Standing Committee of this Diocese. He was elected a member by the Convention of 1878, and was re-elected at every succeeding Convention, giving 43 years of continuous and faithful service.

In the year 1893, he was elected by the Committee its Secretary, to succeed Mr. James S. Biddle, and efficiently filled this office until 1904 when he resigned, and was followed by our present Secretary, Mr. R. Francis Wood. Our Committee has been greatly blessed in having had three such secretaries covering so long a period of its history.

Mr. Frazier was interested in all the activities of the Diocese, many of them he helped to initiate, to them all he gave generous support. His business ability, habits, and experience made his presence and counsel of great value. Positive in his convictions, outspoken and fearless in uttering them, conservative by nature, he disliked and avoided partisanship. He was kind-hearted and gracious and considerate of others, respecting in them that freedom of opinion which he claimed for himself.

Now that he has departed to be with Christ, we shall sadly miss his loving companionship and wise counsel. Both his example while living with us, and the vacant place which he has left among us, prompt us to give most high praise and hearty thanks to God for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all His Saints, who have been the choice vessels of His Grace, and the lights of the world in their several generations.

November 1, 1921.—Gave consent to the sale by the authorities of S. John Chrysostem of property on Earlham Street near Pulaski Avenue.

Elected William W. Frazier, Junior, to fill the vacancy on the Committee.

December 6, 1921.—Approved of the sale of the property of S. Andrew's Church, Eighth above Spruce Street, to the Greek Church.

Consent was given to the sale by the authorities of All Saints Church, Eleventh Street and Snyder Avenue, of the property 740 South Twelfth Street.

The Bishop was advised to give his consent to the establishment of a new place of worship at Glenside.

Advised to Bishop to consent to the organization as a parish of S. Barnabas' Mission, Haddington.

The President was requested to call the attention, by notice in the Church News or otherwise, of all rectors in the Diocese to the requirements of the new Canons of the General Convention with regard to applications for admission as candidates for Holy Orders and for Ordination.

December 20, 1921.—A new application for the establishment of a mission at Wynnefield being presented, the Committee advised the Bishop not to consent to the establishment of a mission at the proposed site, the property formerly recommended having been sold to another party before purchase was consummated.

February 6, 1922.—In accordance with the action of the last Convention, the Committee decided, with the approval of the Bishop, that the next Diocesan Convention should be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, the consent of the Rector of that Parish having first been obtained.

Nominated Mr. Evan Randolph as a member of the Board of the City Mission to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Effingham Perot.

The Rev. Dr. Robinson presented a draft of the canonical requirements for candidates for Holy Orders and for Ordination, which was approved and ordered to be printed.

March 7, 1922.—Approval was given to the establishment of a new place of worship to be known as S. Andrew's Chapel of the Divinity School at N. W. Cor. 42nd and Spruce Streets.

Consent was given to the election by the Diocese of Alabama of a Bishop Co-Adjutor on account of the extent of work.

April 4, 1922.—The Bishop and the Committee took up the nomination of members of the Executive Council to be submitted to the Convention as provided by canon. Names were placed in nomination and have been submitted to the Secretary of the Convention for nomination.

The report of the audit by Certified Public Accountants of the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese was presented.

Mr. Francis A. Lewis was elected a Trustee of the Christmas Fund to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. William W. Frazier.

April 28, 1922.—On the nomination of the Bishop, elected The Rev. A. H. Hord as an Examining Chaplain to take the place of The Rev. H. M. Medary.

Nominated to the Board of Council of the City Mission the members of the present Board for re-election.

Gave consent to the sale of the property of the Church of the Evangelists and authorized the lay members of the Committee to sign with the Bishop the necessary certificate under a Deed of Trust of that property.

R. FRANCIS WOOD, Secretary.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Executive Council

The machinery brought into existence by the Diocesan Convention of 1919 and 1920 is continuing to develop. The quarterly meetings of the Council have been found to be insufficient to cover adequately the large number of matters requiring action, and the Council has therefore recently adopted resolutions which will result in monthly meetings except during the summer.

The Council takes pleasure in reporting the general satisfaction which exists with reference to the accommodations of our various Church activities in the new quarters at 202 South Nineteenth Street. As a result of mutual concessions, rooms have been provided to meet all requirements, and it is believed that all of our organizations are adequately and comfortably provided for. The Annex with its three stories amply provides for the new activities of the women, and it is a real source of satisfaction to everybody that all our diocesan activities can be carried on under a single roof.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The report of the Department of Missions will as usual be printed independently. Attention here may be called to the facts that:

1. The missionaries as well as the parochial clergy benefited by the adoption of the new canon calling for increased salaries for the clergy.

2. That as a result of the Diocese turning over to General Missions (for reasons that will be hereafter discussed), the balance on hand at the end of the year 1921, no funds were available for additions and improvements to the missionary properties—except, of course, the contributions of the Church Extension Fund, which were largely increased during the year. In view of the increased offerings for Missions anticipated in 1922 (which also will be later discussed), it is hoped that at the end of the year 1922 a substantial balance may remain available for the development of missionary or other work.

It is worthy of notice also that during the year, missionary conferences were held in approximately half of the 200 parishes and missions in the Diocese. These were conducted occasionally by clergymen, but generally by laymen and laywomen, and it is believed that in many churches they helped largely to increase the interest in the church's mission.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Several items of general interest may be noted.

First is the inauguration of two series of Diocesan Bible Classes, one under the leadership of Rev. Dr. R. K. Yerkes and the other under the leadership of Dr. William C. Sturgis. The first has had an average attendance of about fifty; the second, held on Tuesday evenings in Lent, about the same. It is hoped that these classes thus successfully inaugurated will become a part of the regular life of the Diocese, and that religious instruction to increasing numbers of our adult members will be stimulated in this way.

The Sunday School Offering for Lent increased to $51,505.59, which is again a new record in the givings of our Diocese, and is some evidence of the efficiency of our Sunday School life.

As mentioned in the last report, the Department feels that any considerable development is impossible without the services of a secretary, who should give his whole time to the work. It has been suggested that the salary of such a secretary might be supplied, at least in part, out of the income of funds in the hands of the Cathedral Corporation; and there is reason to believe that this suggestion would be acceptable to the Cathedral Chapter. But the suggestion raises, of course, the important question of the present status of the Cathedral project and of its official relation to the Convention; and the Executive Council did not feel that they could properly act until this prior question had been dealt with by the Convention itself. The Council therefore suggested to the Cathedral Chapter that the time was opportune for the steps necessary to this end. Our action led to the appointment of a joint conference Committee, composed of members of the Council and of the Cathedral Chapter; and this joint Committee, after full consideration, agreed to report the following resolution, with the recommendation that the Council should approve the same, and formally present it to the Convention for appropriate action.

Resolved, That the Executive Council considers it opportune to bring before the Diocesan Convention the creation of a Cathedral Foundation, and unites with the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in asking the approval of the project by the Convention.

If such approval should be given, the Council suggests the appointment by the Convention of a Committee, which after conference with a Committee of the Chapter, shall submit a plan for the establishment of appropriate relations between the Convention and the Cathedral.

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS

There will be printed, as an exhibit of this report, a statement prepared by the Department of Institutions showing how their finances have been handled so far as contributions are concerned during the past year. The year 1921 confirms the impression made during the year 1920 that the tendency of the Nation-Wide Campaign was to strengthen the financial position of our institutions. The exhibit referred to shows that as a whole they received substantially more for their support even during the difficult conditions of general business during the year.

It should be noted also that three of our institutions, namely, the Church Farm School, Seamen's Institute and the Divinity School, received contributions for their various building funds aggregating over $90,000—this representing the real forward work of the Diocese during the past year.

It is a fact that it would have been difficult or perhaps impossible for the Diocese to make the contributions required for their support by the institutions had it not been for a special appeal made by the Ways and Means Committee on behalf of the institutions, which realized over $40,000. This matter will, however, be discussed in the portion of the report dealing with the budget for the future.

The new and important step in the history of our institutions is that twelve out of twenty have been taken over by the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia. This means that they will look primarily to the Welfare Federation for support in the future. The first year of the Welfare Federation has, of course, proved a trying one, but confidence is expressed that as the program of the Welfare Federation is better understood, it will receive the generous support which it deserves. The Diocese has arranged with the Welfare Federation that all gifts designated for our church institutions shall be reported to us and credited to the parishes of the donors. In as much as certain of our institutions have not been taken over by the Welfare Federation and others (like the City Mission) will still need assistance from the Diocese, for the year 1922, in their religious work, it seems likely that the sums required from the Diocese for the support of our institutions will be approximately what has been appropriated by the Diocese during the last year.

Finally, as to development work in our institutions, the better view seems to be that funds for such purpose must continue to be found, as in the past, either from legacies or from gifts secured by the Board of Managers. For the Welfare Federation to endeavor to secure funds for development as opposed to maintenance would tend to create rivalry between the institutions.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE

The notable step taken by the Department during the year was the recommendation of a Community Center, to be built under the control of the Mission, at Morrisville. The general plan received very careful consideration both at the hands of the Department and by the Council, and commended itself to all. It calls for the expenditure of about $25,000, which the Department was authorized to provide, partly by contributions and partly through a mortgage on the property. It is a somewhat unique idea to bring into existence a Community Center under church auspices, and the result will be watched with much interest. The fact that this opportunity for forward work outside of the City of Philadelphia was uniformly approved, is evidence that our Church does not fail to appreciate that opportunities for social service may exist outside of our large city.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Several forward steps have marked the work of the Department for the year. The first is the important step taken by the Departmeut when it assumed the obligation, not simply of superintending the disbursement of moneys by the Diocese, but to see that the required amount of money was secured. This idea crystallized in the appointment of a Ways and Means Committee, which during the year issued two appeals. The first was for the support of our Diocesan institutions, realizing the sum of $40,406.22. The second was to insure that our contributions for General Missions would equal the contributions made the previous year, largely as a result of the invaluable support of letters sent by the Bishop, the sum of $50,830 (including some contributions received since January 1st), was realized, and Pennsylvania is credited with more than in 1920 for General Missions despite the fact that the Diocese lost, by death, contributors who had given over $100,000 for the work of the Church. The fact that the Ways and Means Committee is functioning, shows that the Diocese is alive to its responsibility; the fact that our people have responded generously to its appeals shows that we have large resources still available whenever our people are satisfied that they are needed.

In the budget report it will be pointed out that the Council has suggested that the Diocese raise, in 1922, for all purposes, $75,000 more than was raised in 1921. As about $90,000 was raised in 1921 by these two special appeals, it is obvious that $165,000 in addition to last year's regular contributions will have to be raised in 1922 either by increases in the regular contributions from the different Parishes or by special appeals.

The second important step taken by the Department of Finance is an effort to increase regular contributions from the Parishes by inviting a man and a woman from each Parish and Mission, nominated by the Rector or Missionary, to serve as auxiliary members of the Ways and Means Committee. The Bishop has requested the Rectors and Missionaries to appoint such representatives, and about 160 have been appointed. This Committee will ultimately contain 400 names. The object of the Committee is to have in each Parish men and women who will be fully posted as to the needs of the Diocese and the General Church; members of the Committee will serve as connecting links between the Parishes and the Diocese on one hand, and the General Church and the Parishes on the other hand, bringing home to them their obligations and conversely reporting to the Diocesan authorities any new or important facts with reference to the various Churches which may be of general interest. It is hoped in this way that our various Churches will be better organized in the interest of Missions, and that the result may be a substantial increase in the regular contributions. It seems extremely likely, however, that in spite of such better organization, special appeals will still be required this year, and until our people have learned the habit of pledging for their Church in advance what they are willing to give for its work.

A second year's experience has confirmed the views stressed in the report of the Council for 1920. We still have a situation which is unsatisfactory, in that only a small proportion of the sum given has been actually pledged, but which is satisfactory in that despite the relatively small number of pledges, our people when called upon have responded with a fair degree of generosity as they did in 1920.

In the third place, the Department has carefully considered the interesting question of policy raised by the effort on the part of the Episcopal Hospital to raise $60,000 this year for operating expenses, and has recommended to the Council, and the Council has adopted the recommendation, that this effort be heartily endorsed. It is the hope of everybody interested that the plans in contemplation may result in the Episcopal Hospital being furnished with funds necessary to meet its regular expenses, and thus place the largest of our Diocesan Institutions on a satisfactory financial basis.

Finally, the Department has given careful consideration to certain questions affecting the handling of funds by the vestries of our different Parishes, and also of our Institutions, and with the approval of the Council will propose resolutions:

(a) recommending the vestries of our different Parishes to comply with the rules of the law that govern Trustees in making investments;

(b) recommending the passage by the Convention of a resolution urging upon state legislature the enactment of legislation which will obligate religious corporations to comply with the provisions of law governing Trustees in the matter of investments;

(c) recommending to the vestries of the different Parishes and other Church organizations to require their Treasurers to enter security, the cost to be paid by the Parish or Institution; and

(d) recommending that wherever vestries hold any considerable amount of securities, they employ a trust company or the Trustees of the Diocese as custodian to care for same, under proper restrictions as to access by the corporate officials.

It is hoped that these resolutions, while necessarily advisory because of the fact that the Convention cannot compel the officers of the different Church corporations to obey them, will nevertheless meet with the approval of the Convention, and if so approved, it is believed that they will be generally complied with to the great benefit of our various Churches and Institutions. They embody business principles which are generally recognized by business corporations, and it is believed should equally be recognized by the authorities of our different Churches and Institutions.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The two phases of the work of the Department of Publicity, i. e., the Diocesan News, and publicity in the daily papers, have been continued with satisfactory results. The Department is at present stressing the necessity of largely increasing the subscription list of the Diocesan News. It may be added that two members of the Department have been called on to assist the publicity work under the charge of the Presiding Bishop and Council.

DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH PENSIONS

It will be remembered that the work formerly carried on by the Department of Clerical Salaries has been transferred to the Commission on Clerical Salaries, which will doubtless make its own report. In the work of the Department of Church Pensions, there are no startling developments; much the larger part of the clergy of the Diocese are covered by the Church Pension Fund, and the Department is, from time to time, trying by such means as seem possible to arrange that the other members of the clergy shall likewise be included.

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The plans for church insurance have been more definitely formulated and the Department hopes soon to be able to lay before our churches a definite program.

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,
Executive Secretary.

Executive Office, March 1, 1922.

BUDGET REPORT

In its Budget Report to the Convention of 1921, the Council pointed out that it was difficult, or perhaps impossible, to make a budget for the years 1921-1922. The Convention, on the recommendation of the Council, adopted certain resolutions, which in effect, approved a system of priorities by which the sums required should be used for the support of:

(a) Diocesan Missions.
(b) Executive Office.
(c) Institutions.

This system of priorities was enforced during the year 1921 with the result that, as appears by the Treasurer's report, Diocesan Missions were supported at an outlay of $61,650.81; the Executive Office, including the Publicity Department, at an outlay of $19,312.96; and the Institutions of the Diocese receiving a total of $224,434.87, of which $90,831.51 was for contributions to the building funds of the Divinity School, the Church Farm School, and the Seamen's Institute.

It may be added that at the end of the year there was a balance of $20,874.42 available for appropriation, but that the Executive Council decided to apply it to the contributions of the Diocese for General Missions, in order that in the Centennial year of the foundation of the missionary society, the gifts from our Diocese should not be less than the gifts made the previous year.

BUDGET FOR 1922

While the action of the Convention of 1921 established the principles covering the distribution of diocesan funds during the year 1922, it is now possible in the light of two years' experience to lay down a more exact statement of the requirements for the year 1922. These requirements will be substantially as follows:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| (a) | For Diocesan Missions | | $66,201.71 |
| (b) | For expenses of the Executive Office, including Publicity Department | | 20,000.00 |
| (c) | For Trustees of the Diocese to meet extraordinary demands | | 1,000.00 |
| (d) | For support of Institutions not covered by the Welfare Association: | | |
| | Church Farm School | $24,000.00 | |
| | City Mission | 10,000.00 | |
| | St. John's House | 2,500.00 | |
| | Seamen's Institute | 3,000.00 | |
| | Church Work Among Blind | 350.00 | |
| | | | 39,850.00 |
| (e) | Church News | | 1,000.00 |
| (f) | Department of Religious Education | | 650.00 |
| (g) | Department of Social Service | | 300.00 |
| | Total | | $129,001.71 |

The allowance for institutions, of course, does not cover either the support of the institutions included in the Welfare Federation or the support of those other institutions which fortunately will not be obliged to call upon the Diocese for assistance.

It may be added that the figures for 1922 are likely to be repeated during the ensuing years. As salaries to Missionaries have now reached the canonical minimum, the expenses for Diocesan Missions will not materially change, except to the extent that new missions may be established. The expenses of the Executive Office, including the Publicity Department, are also reasonably fixed. Indeed, the only fluctuating item is in the sum allowed for the support of our institutions, and this may be substantially decreased after 1922, for several of the institutions which will require the most support may be taken charge of by the Welfare Federation next year.

The Council therefore submits the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the items of diocesan expenses enumerated in the foregoing table be adopted as the budget for the year 1922.

Resolved, further, That the Council be authorized from time to time to increase or diminish the sums to be used for the different missionary items as the emergency may require.

Resolved, further, That the two foregoing resolutions be adopted for the year 1923.

FORWARD PROGRAM

The foregoing report covers the reasonable maintenance requirements of the diocesan work. The experience of the last two years indicates, however, that beginning in 1922, there may be a substantial balance of diocesan money available for forward work. Following the example of the General Church, the Council submits to the Convention the following list of forward work which may be undertaken during the years 1922-23 as funds are available:

FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF MISSIONARY WORK

(a) Assistance toward the erection of a church building at Collingdale.

(b) Building of a Rectory at Drexel Hill.

(c) Establishing new Missions in Tabor, in South West Philadelphia, in or near the Girard Estate, and in the Northwood section, and buildings for St. Giles's.

(d) Erecting a Parish House for St. Gabriel's, Feltonville.

(e) Establishing work at Glenside.

FOR ADDITIONAL DIOCESAN SERVICE

Employment of additional priests to assist in work among foreign born, to serve as Secretary of the Department of Religious Education, and to serve as assistants in the general missionary work of the Diocese. (This is the object of an appeal that is being made by the Cathedral Church of Christ, but it is felt that the Diocese may properly undertake such expenditures pending the acquisition by the Cathedral Church of Christ of sufficient funds to care for them.)

FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

(a) Contribution toward the proposed Community House at Morrisville.

It is not thought wise to attempt to decide affirmatively just what sums should be expended for each of these items, nor in what order they should be covered by the diocesan surplus. It is felt that if the Convention approves the objects, discretion as to these matters should be left to the Executive Council. The following resolutions are therefore submitted:

Resolved, That the Convention adopt the foregoing list of projects as the forward work of the Diocese for the years 1922-23.

Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to use its discretion as to the amounts to be expended for each of the foregoing items, and the order in which they shall be provided for out of the diocesan balance for each year, or it may be used for such other objects as may be recommended by the Bishops and approved by a majority of the Council.

Resolved, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania will continue to share with General Missions as heretofore in the proportion of 50.93 per cent. to General Missions, and 49.07 per cent. to the Diocese, excepting building funds and other similar exceptions recognized by existing practice.

Executive Office, March 3, 1922.

REPORT OF SOCIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL, 1921-1922

The outstanding feature of the year's work has been the inauguration and development of plans for the erection of a community house at Morrisville, Pennsylvania, as a part of the work of the Parish of the Incarnation. Originating in the suggestion of the Rev. Sears M. Holden, the Rector, the matter was referred to this Department for study and report. A careful personal examination of the local situation and interviews with the representatives of the various interests, resulted in a favorable report, the Department recommending that the generous offer of Mr. Thomas B. Stockman of the two lots on the corner opposite to the present church be accepted and steps be taken to erect thereon a $25,000 building harmonizing in architecture with the church building, this money to be raised in the Diocese and the Institution to be a diocesan affair with ample local co-operation. Several conferences with the Executive Committee and subsequently with the Executive Council resulted in the formal endorsement of the project. At the present time the Department is engaged in preparing the plans for the building and raising the necessary funds, information concerning which has been sent broadcast throughout the Diocese. The Department of Social Service was authorized to raise the money with the understanding that any contributions made to this fund should be applied on account of the quota of the church whence the contribution came. The present plan for financing it is to raise as large a sum as possible, not less than $10,000, and to provide for the balance by a loan to be paid off in five annual installments.

In November a study class in social topics was conducted at the Church House by the Rev. Charles N. Lathrop, Secretary of the Department of Christian Social Service of the Presiding Bishop and Council. The volume prepared by that Department was used as a text-book and subsequently the brochure issued by the Presiding Bishop and Council entitled "The Task of the Church" was issued to supplement it.

As a further educational measure, lists of books dealing with social topics were prepared and published in the Diocesan News. Copies of all were placed on the shelves of the Diocesan Library. Arrangements were also made to have these books placed on the shelves of the Free Library, Thirteenth and Locust Streets. From time to time other reading lists will be published and the books mentioned therein placed both in the Diocesan Library and the Free Library.

Unemployment was a subject which had almost constant attention at the hands of the Department. Various efforts were made to alleviate the immediate needs and to place the clergy and others responsible in touch with sources of employment. In addition to this a pastoral letter was issued by the Bishop making certain definite suggestions for immediate relief.

A letter strongly urging the retention of a whole time Secretary for the Department of Christian Social Service was forwarded to the Council for consideration and is now being debated. In urging a whole time Secretary, Dean Lathrop showed how helpful such a policy had been in the Diocese of New York, where results had been accomplished of the first importance. Boston has made its plans and has set aside money for an Executive Social Service Secretary and is only waiting to secure the right man for the place. It is to be devoutly hoped that the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be the next in line.

We have to note with regret the resignation of Rev. Phillips E. Osgood because of his acceptance of the Rectorship of St. Mark's, Minneapolis, and of Mr. Henry H. Bonnell. Both were faithful and efficient members of the Department and their activities and advice are sincerely missed. The Rev. George Woodward Lamb, of Hatboro, was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Osgood's resignation and Dr. Blair Spencer, Director of Public Welfare, was selected to succeed Mr. Bonnell.

Only the more important questions and problems dealt with by the Department have herein been mentioned. Very many other questions, which may in time develop into important ones, have been thoroughly considered. In justice it ought to be said that the members of the Department are hard working and faithful in their attendance and in meeting their assignments.

Respectfully submitted,

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF INSTITUTIONS

To the Executive Council,
Church House,
Philadelphia, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:

The Department of Institutions begs to report that it has prepared the following table which shows what our institutions now on our list received in 1920, and also what they received during the year 1921. Also (in a footnote) what was given each year for building funds for certain of them.

It will be noted that for the year 1921 the special gifts to the institutions are divided into three columns:

(1) Designated by Donors.
(2) Remitted Direct.
(3) Special Appeal.

This division is made so that the Council may be informed as to the way in which these special gifts were secured. The new item this year was the special appeal for our institutions, by which over $40,000 was raised for them. Exclusive of building funds, the total of these three columns is $106,193.27 contributed for the institutions during the year 1921, compared with the total of $69,180.54 contributed in 1920. The table also shows that twelve of our institutions have been taken over by the Welfare Federation, which has become responsible for their support since October first; our institutions have received from the Welfare Federation certain sums for their support from October 1st to December 31, 1921, but the Executive Office has not yet been notified by the Welfare Federation what gifts received by it during that period should be credited to the different parishes. As a result, but only as a result, of the special appeal, our institutions on the whole have been well provided for during the year by contributions, and it has not been necessary for the Diocese to contribute much for their support.

The year 1922 presents certain new problems. The first grows out of the formation during the year of the Welfare Federation. Twelve of our institutions have been taken over by it. It is of course understood that any gifts to the Welfare Federation designated for our institutions will be credited to the parishes of the donors, provided they are named. To the extent that the Welfare Federation is able to provide for its institutions, our Diocesan funds will be relieved from their support—except that in the case of the City Mission an allowance of $10,000 will still be needed for its religious work not covered by the Welfare Federation, and in the same way, in the case of the Seamen's Institute, an allowance of $3000 will still be needed for the same purpose. It will be uncertain whether the Diocese will be called upon for additional support for the institutions taken over by the Welfare Federation until it is determined whether the Welfare Federation is able to fully support them.

This leaves seven of our institutions which will still look to the Diocese. Of this number, however, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has not required any diocesan support. To the list should now be added the Society for the Promotion of Church Work among the Blind, which has been put on the list of Diocesan Institutions for the sum of $350. Judging by the amounts appropriated by the Diocese to our different institutions during the year 1921 and the current needs for the ensuing year, the remaining Diocesan Institutions are likely to need at least $25,000 from the Diocese during the ensuing year.

It is as uncertain in 1922, as it was in 1921, how much will be received for extra parochial purposes; a better organization in many parishes has resulted in a larger parochial giving through the Diocese during the year, but the amount of pledges (and therefore the amount that may be expected from the parishes) must be considerably increased, or otherwise a special appeal for our institutions or for missionary work, or both, may again be needed during the ensuing year.

G This figure includes $2,035.14 on account Special Appeal.

The above figures for building funds are not included in figures shown for these respective institutions.

The Department therefore submits the following resolutions:

(a) That each of the institutions not on the Welfare Federation appeal to its own supporters for contributions for the ensuing year—with the understanding that the institutions will receive support from Diocesan funds as they are needed, so far as such funds are available.

(b) That institutions on the Welfare Federation shall likewise be free to call upon the Diocesan Funds for support if the Welfare Federation should not prove able to support them entirely.

Our people should again be reminded that appeals for our institutions are wholly due to the unwillingness on the part of our people to pledge in advance a sufficient sum to meet the needs of the institutions; when sufficient pledges have been made, these appeals will instantly come to an end.

Respectfully submitted,

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,
Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

January 18, 1922.

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Publicity respectfully submits its report for the year 1921 as follows:

The Department has covered with good results the publication of the Church News and furnished news items to the Philadelphia newspapers and the correspondents of Church publications, co-operating at all times with the parishes and diocesan organizations.

The newspapers have been most generous with space and as a result of the relations established are manifesting increasing interest in the news of the Church and keeping diocesan activities before the general public.

The Associated Press has opened its mail service for distribution of items of lesser value which have found their way through Pennsylvania and many of the important news stories have been carried through the United States over their wires.

The Department is handling all publicity of a national character received from the Publicity Department of the Presiding Bishop and Council; for example, the effective publicity of the reception of the Hungarian Reformed Church into communion with the Episcopal Church.

Through the aid and interest of the city newspapers, wide publicity has been given to certain other special events as:

The Missionary Conferences,
Report of Commission on Deaconesses,
Beginning of work on the Divinity School,
Welcome meeting for the Patriarch of the Holy Eastern Orthodox Church, and Nearly full-page illustrated story on the present Church House.

At the suggestion of the Bishop, the Department has established an Exchange Bureau through which church furniture and discarded furnishings find their way to parishes or missions in need of them. Many needs have already been supplied at considerable saving.

The Church News presents a problem and at the same time a great opportunity. There is evidence of increased interest in the value and possibilities of the publication, but the subscription list does not show a corresponding increase. An effort was made to enlist the Church Schools in an Advent offering campaign, which was laid before the Clergy and the Church Schools, but, while the bulk sales increased, less than 100 new subscriptions were reported. Small circulation is not peculiar, however, to the Church News, as similar reports come in as to all other Diocesan publications.

The present Director has maintained the high standard of the Department established by the former Director.

The Department desires to express its grateful appreciation of the interest and co-operation of the several departments, the Clergy and members of the Church generally.

JOHN J. COLLIER,
Chairman.

Treasurer.

Audited and found correct this 14th day of January, 1922, I. Franklin Howard & Co., by W. T. S. Showderl, Certified Public Accountant.

The Church Pension Fund reports the most successful year in its history. The Five-Year Subscriptions to its initial reserve are completed and the Trustees are able to know where they stand financially. In 1921 Assessments amounting to the impressive total of $847,000 were received, being an increase of 9.68 per cent. The Church could hardly support its Pension System with greater heartiness. As a result the Trustees have been able to come to an important decision, the announcement of which has caused widespread rejoicing. It was ordered that whenever a Clergyman died in active service leaving a widow, there be sent immediately to the widow a check for $1000. Furthermore, each widow now upon the pension roll whose husband died in active service between March 1, 1917, and December 20, 1921, was voted an increase of her pension of $60 a year, this being the income at 6 per cent on the $1000 which she would have received at the death of her husband if this legislation could have been enacted when the Fund began its operation. The resolutions of the Trustees in reference to the gratifying forward step were printed in Church Pension Progress, January, 1922, and copies have been sent to all concerned. Particular attention is drawn to the final Resolution which warns against the consequences of non-payment of premiums after January 1, 1923.

The Trustees show a total of 627 Pensions now in force and that these together with other grants made by them amounted to the large figure of $412,000 on January 1, 1922.

In this Diocese the following grants have been made during 1921:

|---|---|
| Mrs. John B. Harding | $ 360.00 |
| Mrs. William Horsfall | 300.00 |
| Mrs. Frederick J. B. Keable | 360.00 |
| Mrs. Theodore Stroup and child | 411.32 |
| Rev. William S. Neill | 452.24 |
| Rev. Alfred E. Macnamara | 600.00 |
| Rev. George Woolsey Hodge | 600.00 |
| Mrs. William C. Rogers | 360.00 |
| Total | $3,443.56 |

This brings the total number of grants in the Diocese of Pennsylvania up to forty-nine, with an annual distribution of $17,533.56.

Thirteen ladies whose husbands had died in service between March 1, 1917, and December 20, 1921, have had their pensions increased by $60 dollars a year in accordance with the Resolution above quoted.

The following memorandum should receive our careful consideration:

The Convention Journal for 1921 with additions to December 31st, shows 328 clergymen on the list; of this number six have died, seven have been pensioned, two could not be located, forty-three are living outside the Diocese, while thirty-five are retired or have no parochial connection.

Deducting these ninety-three from the total leaves 235 who should be taking advantage of the Pension Fund. Of this number:

|---|---|
| Premiums have been paid to December 31, 1921, on behalf of | 190 |
| Premiums have been paid on less than $1200 basis on | 15 |
| The Delinquents number | 8 |
| Those who are as yet non-participating | 22 |

Our joy over the unprecedented success of the Pension movement is tempered by the persistence of so considerable a number amongst us who are not qualifying to receive the full benefits of the Fund. Your Department is steadily doing what it can to secure for these brethren the protection which the Fund is able and ready to extend.

The thirty-five retired brethren constitute a problem which we remind you again, cannot be satisfactorily solved until we more intelligently co-ordinate our local systems of relief.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed) LOUIS C. WASHBURN.

Thomas S. Gates, Treasurer, in account with the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the Year 1921.

| Deficit | $974.19 | $8,271.15 | $9,245.34 |

* The cost of alterations was more than anticipated. This was principally due to the fact that as the work went on, unexpected additions were needed; for example, the old electric wiring was found to be entirely defective and had to be renewed at a cost of $3000. The Custodians believed, however, that in view of the prospect of having to use the property for many years, it was good policy to make the arrangements both in the main building and the annex as complete as possible. They are glad to report the universal satisfaction with the result. The building is less noisy, much more comfortable to work in than the old Church House. The Clergy have more convenient quarters. The Library is much more accessible. All of the institutions of the Diocese who needed rooms have been accommodated. It is believed that a much larger number of our people use the new Church House as their home than were accustomed to use the old Church House; the Diocesan Bible Classes of Dr. Sturgis and Dr. Yerkes, which have been well attended, are illustrations of the enlarged use which it is hoped will continue to grow still further in the future years. Finally, the work of the women is generously provided for in the Annex. The Church may well be proud of its new Diocesan Home which promises to be a real center of the life of the Diocese to an extent that was not possible at 12th and Walnut Streets.

ESTIMATED COST OF OPERATION OF 202 SOUTH 19TH STREET

|---|---|---|
| From contributions, etc. | $750.00 | |
| Interest on $20,000 at 5 per cent. | 1,000.00 | |
| Total Receipts | | $1,750.00 |
| Expenses | | |
| Salaries | $3,560.00 | |
| Cleaning (Wages) | 650.00 | |
| Supplies (such as soap, mops, towels, drinking cups, etc.) | 450.00 | |
| Electric Lighting and Gas | 500.00 | |
| Coal | 1,500.00 | |
| Elevator Repair | 150.00 | |
| Cleaning Windows (Contract) | 168.00 | |
| Hauling Ashes | 75.00 | |
| Telephone | 480.00 | |
| General Repairs | 125.00 | |
| | | 7,658.00 |
| Deficit | | $5,908.00* |

* It will be noticed that the prospective deficit in operating the New Church House is approximately $1800 more than the deficit in the operation of the Old Church House for its last calendar year, 1920. The reason for this increase is not because the actual cost of operation is larger—on the contrary, the main items of salaries, lighting, coal, telephone, etc., are substantially the same. The explanation of the increased cost is first the fact that $25,000 out of the proceeds of the sale of the Old Church House was set apart as a fund out of which to furnish rent for the Bishop Suffragan. The second reason is the fact that the Custodians have decided to free from all duty to contribute to maintenance the various Church organizations which use the Church House. This is a change of policy which it is hoped will commend itself to the Church at large. In the past not only was the Church Club required to pay a substantial rental, but all of the organizations that used the Church House were expected to make contributions in proportion to their use. The Custodians believe that this was an unwise policy for the reason that the Diocese ought to furnish accommodations without cost to all that are doing its work and that it is as unreasonable to charge one of the Diocesan organizations for the use of a room as it would be to charge the Bishop's Office or the Executive Office. People who are doing the work of the Church ought not be required by the Church to pay rental for the privilege of performing such services. The net result of the change is that on the one hand all of Church organizations, men and women, are housed alike without any rental charge whatever (except a small contribution from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which is not a Diocesan organization), and on the other hand, the General Church will be asked to contribute approximately $1800 more to the Convention Fund in order to accomplish these important improvements.

Trustees Episcopal Fund

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Pennsylvania beg leave to report.

Since the last Convention they have bought $2000 Baltimore and Ohio prior lien 3½% bonds for $1642.50, from proceeds of surrender values of Perpetual Fire Insurance policies on the old Church House, 12th and Walnut Streets, said policies having been purchased many years ago from principal funds belonging to this account, together with gain of $7000 Northern Pacific Great Northern joint 4% bonds paid off, and $133.50 supplied from general funds in hands of the Treasurer of the Diocese (see his account).

They sold $7000 Northern Pacific Great Northern joint 6½% bonds, received in exchange for the 4½%'s paid off as above, for $7392, a gain of $672, and reinvested proceeds in $8000 Georgia Railway and Power Company 6% bonds of 1947 for $7580, creating an over-draft of $188, which will be refunded from accruing income of this account.

In June, 1921, your Trustees received from the Trustees of the Diocese, $25,000, ordered by resolution of the Convention of 1921, for account of "Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, the income from which to be paid to the Bishop Suffragan in addition to his present salary." This amount was promptly invested as follows:

$5,000 Pennsylvania and New York Canal Co. 5% bonds, $4600;

$12,000 Northern Pacific Great Northern Railway joint 6½%'s for $11,580;

$10,000 Baltimore and Ohio Railway ten-year 6% bonds for $8900, making a total investment of $25,080, the annual income therefrom being $1630, the excess investment of $80 being deducted from first income.

On April 24th your Trustees sold $12,000 Northern Pacific Great Northern 6½%'s for $12,672, a gain to principal account of $1092, and reinvested the proceeds in $13,500 Georgia Railway and Power Company 6% bonds of 1947 for $12,-791.25, and ordered the over investment of $119.25 refunded from income accounts.

This change of investment will yield the Bishop Suffragan $810 instead of $780, an increase of $30, with an increase of $1500 in the par value of this trust, which now amounts to $28,500.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS A. LEWIS,
EWING L. MILLER,
CHARLES S. W. PACKARD,
CHARLTON YARNALL,
Trustees.

Report of the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf

The Commission on Church Work among the Deaf recognize the inadequacy of a written report to describe the work which is being done for our "silent brethren." This work continues under the charge of The Rev. C. Orvis Dantzer, who has been our faithful missionary to the deaf for eighteen years. In addition to having the care of All Souls' Church in Philadelphia, The Rev. Mr. Dantzer administers to the deaf in Doylestown, Wilmington, Camden and Trenton. He has been assisted in the conduct of the services by Messrs. W. H. Lipsett and Warren M. Smaltz.

Physical disability has prevented the missionary from giving as much attention to the work as he desired during the past year; but he believes that his health has improved and that he will be able to accomplish more in the next year.

One of the members of the All Souls' Church, Mr. Henry J. Pulver, was ordained to the Diaconate by The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland last June, and is in charge of the work among the deaf in Washington, D .C. Last fall Mr. Warren M. Smaltz, another member of All Souls' Church, began his course of preparation for the ministry at the Philadelphia Divinity School. As lay reader he is assisting The Rev. Dantzer in his work.

Mrs. Henry W. Syle is still rendering valuable service as Parish Visitor and Superintendent of the Bible Class, Altar Guild and the Sewing Circle of the Pastoral Aid Society.

The work of the deaf is now included in the Diocesan Budget; but this does not obviate the necessity of making appeals for repairs and improvements to the property. We trust that there will be such interest in this good work as to bring a suitable response to the appeals when they are made.

For the purpose of keeping this work before our people the Commission recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved: That the rectors of parishes be requested to have special contributions received for this work, preferably on Ash Wednesday or the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, unless some other time be more convenient.

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

The removal to the present headquarters made it necessary to classify and arrange again all the material in this department.

A room on the third floor of the new Church House has been assigned for the use of the Registrar. An admirable fire-proof vault was built in the basement for the storage of the most valuable papers and for the use also of the Standing Committee, the Bishop White Prayer Book Society and other organizations of the Diocese.

The records of the Registrar are now in excellent order and are accessible to all who wish to consult them.

The books and papers of the Committee on Parochial History are also on file in the Registrar's room, and many new and valuable additions to this collection have been recently made through the untiring efforts of The Rev. Dr. G. Woolsey Hodge, Chairman.

Adjoining the Registrar's room is the Church Historical Society which has a valuable collection of portraits, manuscripts and books. The advantages of this arrangement are obvious, and the rare and interesting collection of historical data here brought together offers an unusual opportunity to the student of Diocesan and general Church history.

Since the last Convention the following donations have been received:

1. Volume of Reports of the City Mission from 1872 to 1888 from Bishop Garland.
2. Charter, Amendments to the Charter and other papers of the Church of the Transfiguration, West Philadelphia, from the Chancellor of the Diocese.
3. Journals of the General Convention for the years 1907, 1910, 1913, 1916, 1919.

4. Papers relating to the trial of The Rev. E. S. Widdemer and other documents from Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Esq.
5. History of S. George's Church, West Philadelphia, and an account of the Tenth Anniversary of the present Rector of that Parish, The Rev. G. La Pla Smith.
6. An Address by Bishop Beverley D. Tucker on the "Men's Missionary Thanks Offering in Its Relation to the Planting of the Church at Jamestown, 1607."
7. Address in Holy Trinity Church by Francis A. Lewis, Esq.
8. History of S. George's Church, Pennsneck, New Jersey, List of Men in Service during the Great War from S. John's Church, Salem, N. J., and an Address on the late Chaplain Charles C. Pierce by The Rev. Elliston J. Perot.
9. Year Book and Directory of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, for the years 1920, 1921 and Year Book and Directory of S. Bartholomew's Church, Wissinoming.
10. An Account of the Celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Rectorship of The Rev. John A. Goodfellow of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington.
11. Reports of the Bishop's Bricks Fund and of the Seamen's Church Institute.
12. Parish Papers of S. George's, Richmond, S. Thomas', Whitemarsh, S. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, S. Matthew's Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, Church of the Atonement, S. Philip's, S. Gabriel's, S. Paul's Chester, Old Swedes, Philadelphia, Holy Trinity Chapel, Christ Church, Pottstown, and an illustrated number of the paper of the Parish of the Advocate, Philadelphia, containing views of the exterior and interior of the church, presented by The Rev. G. G. Matchett.
13. Directory of S. George's Church, Richmond, 1922.
14. Year Book of Holy Trinity Parish, 1922.

For these gifts I beg to express my thanks and also to solicit the continued interest of the donors.

ARNOLD HARRIS HORD,

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Committee on Parochial History

The Committee on Parochial History respectfully reports for the past Conventional year that it has continued its efforts to collect and preserve all books, pamphlets, records and newspaper notices relating to the various Churches and Missions in the Diocese. But it regrets to say that in spite of the circular letter sent out over a year ago asking the various clergymen in charge of churches to send such matter to the Committee, but little comparatively has been received during the past year.

It seems to be exceedingly difficult to interest the clergy in historical matters and get them to realize the importance of preserving everything of importance in regard to their several churches. The Committee would urge the clergy not only to collect and send to it any historical data relating to their several cures, but themselves to compile and print historical sketches of the churches of which they have charge. This would not only be the means of preserving valuable historical information, but it would be most useful in eliciting the interest of the congregations in the churches to which they belong.

The Committee can only persevere in their labors and plead with the clergy to assist their efforts.

For the Committee,

G. Woolsey Hodge, Chairman.

May 2, 1922.

APPENDIX R

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries

I

The Commission is able to report to the Convention that encouraging progress has been made toward a more stable and satisfactory condition of clerical salaries in the Diocese.

The Diocese is now guaranteeing to the clergy at least a living wage. That is essential not only to securing good men and receiving good work from them, but also to the self-respect of the Diocese. Ultimately this is an obligation of the whole Diocese, but primarily it is the obligation of the parish to pay its rector a living salary. Only real inability to do so on the part of the parish properly shifts the responsibility to the Diocese. One of the greatly encouraging things we have to report is the general willingness on the part of the parishes to recognize this principle, and the degree in which many of the parishes have given practical effect to the principle, as will be seen from the statistical report.

II

The Convention will recall that on the recommendation of the Commission a sliding scale of salaries based on years of service was adopted. Beginning with $1200 per annum for newly ordained men, it runs up to $2000 and a rectory for men who have been in priest's orders eight years or more. It was felt that we could not put this schedule into operation in full the first year. The Convention, therefore, decided that for the year 1921 each clergyman should receive one-half the difference between the amount he was then receiving and the amount to which he would be entitled according to the adopted scale; and that the full schedule should go into operation in 1922.

From its original survey of the situation the Commission found that some forty parishes would be entitled to assistance in 1921 and that it would probably require from the Sustentation Fund $20,000 for 1921 and $30,000 for 1922, when the full schedule went into effect, making a total of $50,000 for the two years.

The Commission realized that its chief work was not to levy a Sustentation Tax and then disburse it. Our duty was a more difficult and a more worthy one. It was to encourage and stimulate the parishes to meet as far as possible these increases in the salaries of their rectors. The efforts of the Commission in this direction met with so ready a response from the parishes that for the year 1921 we had to assist only twenty-eight parishes instead of forty. And the total amount necessary, and spent, to bring the salaries to the appointed amounts for 1921 was $9,244.94, over $10,000 less than estimated.

The year 1922 sees the schedule in full operation, and we are now regularly paying part of the salaries of twenty-three rectors, five less than last year, in spite of the full schedule being now in operation. The total amount required to meet these charges for the year (subject to incidental changes) will be $16,441.08, to which should be added the pension premiums, bringing the total up to approximately $18,000, $12,000 less than originally estimated for this year. And for the two years, in the place of the estimate of $50,000, we shall probably not exceed $27,000, bettering the original estimate for the two years by $23,000.

This means that the sense of obligation in the parishes and their response to the Commission's efforts exceeded our reasonable expectations. And the Commission here makes public record of its hearty and grateful appreciation of the co-operation and good will and confidence it has received both from the clergy and vestries in this admittedly difficult and delicate undertaking. It is all to their credit, and shows that the lay people of many of our small and financially less able parishes appreciate a fact often overlooked by many of us, that some of the best and most consecrated parish priests we have are working quietly and effectively, as well as uncomplainingly, in fields that require, just because of their difficulties, much patience and grace as well as real ability. All honor to them and to their people.

III

The Canon under which we act gives the Commission discretionary power. It can decline to make any grant in any individual case. It is required to report such cases with its reasons for such action to the Convention if "the grant is withheld without the full consent of the parties affected." We know of no case in which the withholding of a grant has been formally objected to by the parties concerned. But the Commission feels that the Convention should be informed as to the general principles which have actuated the Commission in withholding grants.

1. One group of rectors is not receiving the full minimum, not because the Commission has withheld it, but because they have refused it. The Commission felt it had no other course but to acquiesce in their judgment. There are only a very few such cases, four or five. Most of them, if not all of them, are the result of a misunderstanding of the whole situation.

It is well to clear that up. It should be emphatically stated and clearly understood that this Commission is not distributing a bonus, or administering charity, or making gifts. It is administering justice and paying salaries. The Clergy would reject with scorn an appeal for charity to them. The Diocese should be ashamed to offer it to them.

The Diocese has decided that a man's time and labor in the ministry demands at least the fixed minimum, and in cases where the parish is unable to meet that salary, the Diocese helps the parish to pay the salary. Always it is salary, and always it is helping the parish to do its duty. That is the reason the Executive Office, with the approval of the Commission, sends the checks to the Accounting Wardens instead of to the Rectors. It illustrates the principle that we are not making extra gifts to Rectors, but helping parishes to pay salaries.

There is no reason why a clergyman should not accept this portion of his salary, without for an instant considering that he is thereby forfeiting a particle of his dignity, self-respeect and independence.

2. The Commission has withheld the grant in certain cases where the Rector is giving part of his time to remunerative work outside his parish. We have gone on the principle that if the Diocese sees that a man receives full salary, it is bound to insist that the man give full time.

3. In rare instances (four or five in number) the Commission has felt that the quantity or quality of the work did not warrant the large expenditure necessary to bring the salary to the canonical minimum. In such cases we have withheld, reduced or made the grant temporarily. And we have recommended to the Bishop that some combination of stations be made so that the man shall have an opportunity to do full work.

IV

The Commission has felt that it was bound to take a broad view of its purposes and powers. It cannot think of itself as chiefly a disbursing agency. It feels that it is dealing with a problem in life rather than a problem in mathematics. The problem of adequate support for the clergy is so closely knit with the problem of adequate work for the Church that you cannot consider one without being plunged into a consideration of the other. We have a primary duty to secure adequate support for the clergy; we also have a duty to assure the Diocese that the money entrusted to us is worthily spent and bringing results to the Church. The Commission has, therefore, considered it quite within its province upon conference with the Bishop to make recommendations to him with regard to the whole situation of aided parishes.

The more we become acquainted with the facts of the situation, the more we feel that there should be a radical readjustment of work in some sections of the Diocese. Our present system means a steady and large expenditure of money and not always confidence that it is really meeting needs or accomplishing results, at least the greatest possible results from the expenditure of money. Our feeling grows that in certain rural sections, especially, a radically different plan should be tried. The Commission is, in conference with the Bishop and Bishop Suffragan, working toward such a plan. It may for a time, and for future possibilities, involve even a larger expenditure of money. But if that expenditure gives real promise of results the Convention would approve the expense.

V

The work of the Commission has, so far, been confined chiefly to parishes. Under canon the fixing of the stipends of missionaries is under the authority of the Department of Missions of the Executive Council, subject to the approval of the Commission if the Department for any reason wishes to give less than the minimum in an individual case. The Commission can undertake the stimulation of larger giving on the part of the missions. The task of dealing thoroughly and properly with the question of salaries of rectors seemed large enough for us to concentrate on that. The taking over the responsibility for the missionary stipends as well involves not only a change of canon, but many other problems. Ultimately the question of clerical salaries, whether of rectors or missionaries, is one problem. It has to be worked out with care and without jeopardizing what has already been accomplished and is in the way of being accomplished. The Commission has no desire to shirk responsibility, but it is inclined to move a little slowly in this particular matter, in order that it may move surely.

VI

The Commission records the loss of two of its members during the conventional year.

Early in the year Mr. Ewing L. Miller resigned on account of ill health. His resignation was accepted with great regret, as the Commission had counted on much help from his long experience in and intimate acquaintance with the affairs of the Diocese.

Just recently the removal of the Rev. Dr. Johnston to Washington deprived the Commission of its chairman and one of its most active and enthusiastic members. The Diocese owes Doctor Johnston a large debt for his wise, affectionate and helpful interest in bringing the salaries of the clergy more nearly to the plane of justice.

Report of the Committee on Proportionate Representation in the Convention

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

Your Committee "On Proportionate Representation in the Convention" respectfully reports as follows:

The Committee has met from time to time since its appointment and studied various aspects of the matter referred to it. At the first meeting the resignation of Mr. Roland S. Morris was received and accepted and Mr. C. L. McKeehan was chosen to fill his place. As the result of its deliberations, the Committee presents herewith:

I. Proposed Amendments to the Constitution, including
   (1) An Amendment to Article IV, Sec. 2, of the Constitution.
   (2) Amendments to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution designed to bring them into better harmony with the spirit of the proposed Amendment to Article IV, Sec. 2, and to remove possible ambiguity and doubts.

II. Amendments to Canon II, Sec. 4, submitted by way of illustration as to the method by which proportionate representation might be carried out in this Diocese.

III. Discussion of the reasons for proportionate representation.

IV. A statement of the actual practice as to lay representation in the Conventions of the various Dioceses throughout the Church.

I. PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

1. The Committee presents the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That Article IV, Sec. 2 of the Constitution, be amended by omitting all that follows the first sentence ending with the words "Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese" in line 34, page 14 (Edition of 1920) down to and including the words "and no more" in line 12, page 15 (ibid.) and substituting the following:

(1) Each Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may, except as hereinafter provided, send to the Convention one Lay Deputy and so many additional Lay Deputies in relation to the number of communicants of said Church as the Convention may from time to time prescribe by Canon; but no Church shall be entitled to send more than seven Lay Deputies.

(2) A canonically established and organized Mission having one hundred or more communicants, registered and worshipping in such Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy; but the Convention may provide by Canon for additional Lay Deputies from such Mission.

(3) When any Church, theretofore a member of the Convention, shall be adopted as a Mission, its representation shall thereafter be only that of a canonically established and organized Mission, as hereinbefore prescribed.

(4) Any canonical prescription as to the number of Lay Deputies a Church or Mission may send to the Convention shall be changed only at a stated Annual Convention and by the affirmative vote of at least three-fifths of the members of each Order present and voting by Orders.

(5) Lay Deputies shall be communicants of this Church and shall be chosen from the Vestry or from the Congregation of the Church or Mission which they represent.

(6) The Convention may prescribe by Canon the method by which Lay Deputies shall be chosen by Churches and Missions, but such methods of election shall not apply in cases where they are inconsistent with the charter of Churches already members of the Convention.

(7) Lay Deputies, whether voting by Orders or otherwise, shall vote as individuals, except in final action upon proposed changes in the Constitution. In such final action only the Lay deputations from Churches which have been admitted as members of the Convention shall be entitled to vote as the Lay Order, and each such Lay deputation shall then have one vote and no more.

(8) Until otherwise prescribed by Canon, the number of Lay Deputies which any Church may send to the Convention and the method of their election shall remain as heretofore.

(N. B.—The amendment is divided into distinct and numbered propositions only for the convenience of the Convention in discussing the resolution. It is intended that the typographical form be as elsewhere in the Constitution.)

It should be noted in connection with this amendment to Article IV, Sec. 2 of the Constitution, that the Committee has excluded all matters not strictly belonging to a Constitution. The amendment gives authority to the Convention to legislate, but it provides safeguards for the interest of all concerned, and especially for the smaller parishes. It has been made possible to apply the principle of Proportionate Representation, but the exact mode is left to the Convention to determine by Canon. No church which is now a member of the Convention is deprived of its right of representation by at least one Lay Deputy and the number of Lay Deputies any one Church may send is limited by the determination of a maximum number of Lay Deputies from any church. Provision is made for further legislation by Canon as to the method by which Lay Deputies shall be elected so that there can be adaptation to the various forms of organization of churches and missions now existing or hereafter created which should be represented in the Convention. Missions have been given a limited representation and provision has been made for the case of a church which may become a mission. There is the strictest regulation of the method by which changes may be made as to the number of Lay Deputies churches and missions may send to the Convention. It should be especially noted that voting by Orders is retained; the clergy will vote as the Clerical Order and the Lay Deputies will vote as the Lay Order. The method of amending the Constitution remains unchanged in the final action upon any proposed amendment.

2. The Committee also offers the folowing Resolutions:

Resolved, That Article VI, Sec. 2 of the Constitution, be amended by substituting the words "Lay Deputies" for the words "Lay representations" in the two instances in which the latter expression is used in this Article, viz.: lines 2 and 8, page 17 of the Constitution and Canons (Edition of 1920).

Resolved, That Article VII of the Constitution be amended by the insertion of the following sentence in line 26, page 17 of the Constitution and Canons, immediately before the last sentence of the Article:

"When in final action upon an amendment to the Constitution the vote is taken by Lay deputations, the majority of the members of a Lay deputation present at the time the vote is taken shall determine the vote of the deputation, but in case the deputation is evenly divided the vote shall be cast as divided."

Resolved, That Article VII of the Constitution be amended by changing the word "representations" in line 29, page 17 of the Constitution and Canons, to "deputations."

These amendments will remove possible ambiguities and give constitutional warrant to a practice provided for by Standing Order of the Convention VII (a). This Standing Order will need to be amended if the proposed Amendment to Article IV, Sec. 2, providing for Proportionate Representation, is adopted.

II. ILLUSTRATIVE AMENDMENT TO CANON II

The folowing amendments to Canon II, Sec. 4, "Of Membership in the Convention," are offered by the Committee as a possible basis on which Proportionate Representation in the Convention might be introduced in this Diocese. It would be unconstitutional to present them as amendments to the Canon to be acted on at this time or until the proposed amendment to the Constitution, or some similar amendment, should have been adopted:

Resolved, That Canon II, Sec. 4, be amended by prefixing thereto the following:

"Every Church admitted to the Convention, irrespective of the number of communicants registered in it, shall be entitled to send one Lay Deputy to the Convention. Each Church having more than 100 and not more than 250 registered communicants may send one additional Lay Deputy. Each Church having more than 250 and not more than 500 registered communicants may send two additional Lay Deputies. Each Church having more than 500 and not more than 1000 registered communicants may send three additional Lay Deputies. Each Church having more than 1000 and not more than 2000 registered communicants may send four additional Lay Deputies. Each Church having 2000 and not more than 3000 registered communicants may send five additional Lay Deputies. Each Church having more than 3000 registered communicants may send six additional Lay Deputies."

Resolved, That said Canon II, Sec. 4, be further amended by inserting immediately before the last sentence thereof the following:

"With the certificate of the appointment of Lay Deputies and their alternates there shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention a statement of the number of persons registered on the parish list of communicants, kept in accordance with the requirements of Canon XV "Of Parish Registers and Lists of Communicants," as communicants of said Church at a date not more than two months prior to the date fixed for the meeting of the Convention and this statement shall be signed by the Minister of the Parish and by the person or persons who may sign the certificate of appointment with which this statemeent is sent."

There are at present 138 churches admitted to the Convention. Of these

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 16 | Churches | would have | 1 | Lay Deputy | 16 Lay Deputies |
| 37 | " | " | 2 | Lay Deputies | 74 " " |
| 45 | " | " | 3 | " " | 135 " " |
| 30 | " | " | 4 | " " | 120 " " |
| 7 | " | " | 5 | " " | 35 " " |
| 1 | Church | " | 6 | " " | 6 " " |
| 2 | Churches | " | 7 | " " | 14 " " |
| 138 | Churches | would have in all | | | 400 Lay Deputies |

The present whole number of Lay Deputies that might be sent to the Convention is 414. The reduction of the number of Lay Deputies from 414 to 400 will make it possible to provide for the representation of twenty missions having more than 100 communicants without materially increasing the size of the Convention. These missions include more than 75 per cent. of the communicants of the Church not included in churches admitted to the Convention.

More explicit direction should be given in the Canon as to the appointment of alternates and the certificates with which they should be provided. If Proportionate Representation be introduced individual voting would necessarily follow and the need of alternates, for which the Canon already makes provision, would at once be felt.

III. DISCUSSION OF THE REASONS FOR PROPORTIONATE REPRESENTATION

The subject of Proportionate Representation has been brought before the Conventions of this Diocese from time to time in the memory of members of your Committee during the past thirty years. During that time, as hereinafter shown, the use of some form of Proportionate Representation has been very widely extended, so that at the present time the principle is applied in one form or another in the great majority of the Dioceses of this Church. Your Committee is of the opinion that the principle should be applied in this Diocese. Among the reasons which have led your Committee to this conclusion are the following:

(a) In the opinion of your Committee, the immediate effect of Proportionate Representation would be to make the Diocesan Convention more useful to the spiritual life of the Diocese. It would represent more truly the mind of the entire Diocese. It would become a gathering not only in which greater interest would be taken, but also from which greater inspiration would be drawn. Fuller attendance would result and that attendance would be maintained throughout the sessions. The Lay Deputies, except on rare occasions, would vote as individuals, and accordingly, the practice of representation by a single Lay Deputy as enough to cast the vote of his church, which has greatly diminished the interest and usefulness of the Convention, would automatically cease. The Convention would be greatly strengthened by the greater number of Lay Deputies who would come from the larger parishes and by the representatives of missions. The Convention needs them and they need the Convention.

(b) Missions constitute an integral part of the Church. They are doing an important and difficult part of the Church's advance work. They should have representation in the Convention if it is to represent the Diocese as a whole. In many cases they are excluded merely because their financial strength is not sufficient for their independence of Diocesan aid, though churches receiving financial aid from the Diocese are represented in the Convention. There were 5480 communicants reported in 1921 as registered in the forty missions of the Diocese, being more registered communicants than are to be found in any one of a score of Dioceses. In twenty of these missions, or just a half, are included 4124 communicants and each of these twenty missions has more than 100 registered communicants, the average being 207.

(c) The communicants canonically registered in any church or mission constitute a body the size of which can be ascertained with reasonable accuracy and which may be fairly regarded as a measure of the size of the church or mission. A Communicant List exists by Canon in every church and mission; the method by which it shall be kept is carefully regulated by Canon and "the Registers of all Parishes shall be inspected from time to time by the Bishop or by such persons as he may appoint" (Canon XV, Sec. 1, par. 3). If there is any reasonable doubt as to the general accuracy of such lists the Canon may be amended and more strictly enforced. In using the number of registered communicants as the basis of representation, the Committee does not forget that it is by Holy Baptism a person is admitted to the Church; it recognizes, however, the many difficulties and grave doubts that might arise if the number of baptized persons were made the basis.

(d) Proportionate Representation is more just to the churches admitted to the Convention than the present system, which was adopted at a time when there was not such extreme inequality in the sizes of the churches. The support of the work of the Church as a whole rests upon the Church as a whole. As a fact, it is distributed among the Churches of the Diocese not uniformly, but according to the size and ability of the various churches. It would seem wise to provide that there should be such Proportionate Representation that they who do the most to support the work of the Church as a whole should have a larger share in the direction of that work.

(e) Proportionate Representation is more just to the Church as a whole. It enables the Church as a whole to enlist the interest and support of laymen more directly and more effectively. The individual will have a keener interest in the work of the Church as planned in a Convention in which he, as a communicant, is represented and not merely that corporation with which he may be only temporarily connected and in which he often has no vote.

IV. A STATEMENT OF THE ACTUAL PRACTICE AS TO LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE CONVENTIONS OF THE VARIOUS DIOCESES THROUGHOUT THE CHURCH

There is no uniform method of Lay Representation in the Diocesan Convention and the sixty-nine Dioceses of the Church present many variations. There are, however, two main classes of Dioceses differing in respect to their method of Lay Representation: (1) those Dioceses in which there is some proportion between the number of Lay Deputies and the size of the church or congregation sending them to the Diocesan Convention; and (2) those Dioceses in which the same number of Lay Deputies may be sent from each church or congregation entitled to send Lay Deputies to the Convention. Of the former class there are fifty-six; of the latter thirteen. The trend has been steadily toward the former method of Lay Representation.

Of the fifty-six Dioceses having some form of Proportionate Representation there are three classes:

1. Diocese in which the number of Lay Deputies a parish or congregation may send to the Convention depends upon the number of registered communicants in the parish or congregation. Of these there are twenty-one Dioceses, as follows:

Arkansas, Bethlehem, Dallas, Duluth, Erie, Fond du Lac, Harrisburg, Indianapolis, Iowa, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, Olympia, Pittsburgh, Rhode Island, Sacramento, Southern Virginia, Vermont, West Texas, West Virginia.

2. Dioceses in which the number of Lay Deputies sent from a parish is greater than the number sent from a Mission. There is here a roughly proportionate system of Lay Representation, as the Missions are smaller than the average parish. Of these there are twenty-nine, as follows:

Alabama, Atlanta, Chicago, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Lexington, Louisiana, Marquette, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Newark, New York, North Carolina, Northern Indiana, Ohio, Oregon, Quincy, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Western Massachusetts, Western Michigan, West Missouri.

3. Dioceses in which the number of Lay Deputies depends upon other considerations than the number of communicants, e. g., upon the number of clergy settled in the parish or the number of congregations with separate places of worship. Of these there are six, as follows:

Easton, Connecticut, Maryland, Southwestern Virginia, Virginia, Washington.

Dioceses which have no form of Proportionate Representation, but grant the same number of Lay Deputies to every church or congregation entitled to send Lay Deputies to the Diocesan Convention are thirteen, as follows:

Albany, California, Central New York, East Carolina, Kansas, Long Island, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Southern Ohio, Springfield, Western New York.

(The preceding statement is based upon a fresh examination of the latest editions of the Constitution and Canons of every Diocese throughout the Church and upon correspondence with the authorities of all the Dioceses. It shows some slight variations from earlier statements.)

It should be noted in this connection that every one of the thirteen Dioceses in the Province of Washington, with the exception of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, has some form of Proportionate Representation, either basing it upon the number of communicants registered in a parish or upon the number of clergy canonically settled in a parish.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee on Proportionate Representation in the Convention.

JOSEPH CULLEN AYER,
Chairman.

MINORITY REPORT

Philadelphia, Pa., April 11, 1922.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Penna.

I am unable to concur in the report of the majority of the Committee on proportionate representation for the following reasons:

1. The proponents have not advanced any convincing argument in favor of the change.
2. The term "Communicant" is too indefinite.
3. That even if proportionate representation is theoretically proper, it is doubtful if it can be equitably worked out.

I

Change purely for the sake of change is bad, and whether in the realm of religion, business or politics, always leads to a period of confusion and discontent. The reasons set forth by the majority under IIIa are opinions only to which they are entitled, but in the absence of evidence are not conclusive, and the best that can be said for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for example, is that it is negative.

There is much justice in the suggestion that missions be admitted to representation in the Convention and to this I have no objection.

Argument under (c) will be dealt with in the next division.

As to the question of justice advanced under paragraphs (d) and (e), this again may be a matter of opinion. For example, are the communicants of a chapel, who have no voice in the election of the vestry of the Mother Church, to be counted to increase the ratio of that Church; this would not seem to be just, nor could the deputies be said to represent those who had no voice direct or indirect in their selection, or again as "It would seem wise to provide * * * that they who do the most to support the work of the Church as a whole should have a larger share in the direction of that work."

How is that to be accomplished, when under the illustrative Canon, a church, which on the basis of the report in the 1921 JOURNAL, contributed to missions $58 plus per communicant would have four deputies and one which contributed $30 plus would have but four deputies, and on the other hand, two that contributed less than $10 per communicant would have seven each.

II

We all know that our communicant lists are not accurate. That the term "Communicant" is differently interpreted by different rectors and that Canon XV can be made effective only if we are to have espionage which would be intolerable, for no one can correct such list except in the case of grave or wilful abuse, without an intimate knowledge of the congregation.

III

How then can the ratio be equated? Surely it should not be determined by numbers only, and still more surely not by dollars.

Unfortunately, absence from the city prevented me from being present at the last session of the Committee, so that I did not see Part IV of the report until it reached me in the completed form in which it had been filed with the Secretary of the Convention. I must disagree most emphatically from the classification of the twenty-nine Dioceses under Group II, as those having proportionate representation, for, as I understand it, the parishes irrespective of size, have the same number of deputies, and the only distinction is that missions are represented by a lesser number. Of the six under Group III, the proportion there is based more clearly on the wealth of the parish and its ability to support a large staff of clergy than anything else; which is a basis I hope will never be adopted in this Diocese. So there are left the twenty-one Dioceses under Group I, twenty-one out of fifty-six Dioceses having the kind of proportionate representation we have under consideration; all of them small, the largest in fact, having less than one-fourth the number of communicants that there are in this Diocese, and many of them a lesser number than there are in either of two of our larger parishes.

I, therefore, submit the following:

Resolved: That the proposed amendment to Article IV, Section 2 of the Constitution be laid on the table.

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. S. TINGLEY.

APPENDIX T

Report of Diocesan Commission on Membership of Women in the Convention

To the President and Members of the Convention:

At the Diocesan Convention of 1921, the following Preamble and Resolution were adopted:

"Whereas This Convention has put upon its passage an amendment to the Constitution looking towards the admission of women as regularly accredited deputies to the Diocesan Convention; and

Whereas the Committee introducing this amendment has not submitted therewith any careful study of the further steps that will be necessary should the amendment be finally adopted; and

Whereas the whole matter of the due recognition of the part of the women in the affairs and counsels of the Church, and of the most effective use to be made of their abilities for the furtherance of the Church's task, is of great and pressing importance:

Be it resolved: That the Bishop of the Diocese appoint a Commission, consisting of three clergymen, three laymen, and three women, who shall consider the whole subject, and report to the next Convention; and

Be it further Resolved: That this Commission be instructed to consider in particular these points:

1. The probable effects and results of the membership of men and women together in the Convention, the vestries, and the convocations;

2. The advisability of a separate House of Churchwomen meeting coincidently with the Convention, and, on certain occasions, in joint session with it, as a possible alternative to the plan for mixed membership in the Convention itself;

3. The methods by which any change, or changes, looking to the larger and more formal participation of women in the affairs of the Church may best be brought about; and

4. The further changes necessary in our present legislation, should the amendment now upon passage be finally adopted.

Pursuant to the authority conferred in the first resolution, the Bishop of the Diocese appointed the following Commission:

Rev. George G. Bartlett, D. D.
Rev. George L. Richardson, D. D.
Rev. Wood Stewart
Mrs. Albert Lucas
Mrs. J. Willis Martin
Mrs. J. Vaughan Merrick
Mr. E. H. Bonsall
Mr. William H. Reeves, and
Mr. Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Convener.

Prior to the organization of the Commission, Mrs. Albert Lucas resigned and Mrs. Charles R. Pancoast was appointed to fill the vacancy. After the Commission had had several meetings, Mrs. J. Vaughan Merrick resigned, and Mrs. R. R. Porter Bradford was appointed to fill the vacancy. In addition to the above, Reynolds D. Brown, Esq., Executive Secretary of the Diocese, has attended several meetings of the Commission.

The first meeting of the Commission was held on Tuesday, June 7th, 1921, at 4 P. M., at 614 Franklin Building, 133 South 12th Street, Philadelphia when the Commission organized by the election of Mr. Edmonds as Chairman and Mrs. Pancoast as Secretary. Subsequent meetings of the Commission were held at the Church House on Tuesday, September 27th, 1921, Tuesday, January 21st, 1922, Wednesday, March 29th, and Monday, April 17th. At each of these meetings there was a quorum of the Commission in attendance. Resolutions dealing with the subject matter of the work before the Commission were received from the Church Women's Association, and were given due consideration.

In order to obtain adequate information regarding the state of the Church on the question referred to it, the Commission directed the Secretary to send a letter to every Diocese of the Church where plans had been carried into effect enlarging the official recognition of the work of women in the Church. Copy of this letter is hereunto appended, and marked "Exhibit A." Later an identical letter was sent to every Diocese and Missionary District in the United States. The Report of the Secretary summarizing this correspondence is appended hereto, and marked "Exhibit B."

In addition to the above, the questions referred to the Commission have been under consideration by several representative bodies in the Diocese. The Executive Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese has adopted a resolution favoring the admission of women to the Diocesan Convention by a vote of 18 to 5. In several parishes, the Woman's Auxiliary has considered the question, and in some cases, have adopted resolutions against the admission of women to the Diocesan Convention, and in some cases have taken action in favor of the proposed change. These actions indicate that among the Church women themselves, there is no unanimity of opinion on the general subject.

As a result of its deliberations the Commission reports the following findings:

First: There is a great and increasing interest in the Church in the work of the women, and a strong desire that this work shall find expression by enlarging the official recognition of women in the life and management of the Church. Reference is made to the recommendations of the Lambeth Conference, Resolution No. 46—"Women should be admitted to those Councils of the Church to which laymen are admitted and on equal terms—diocesan, provincial, or national synods may decide how this principle is to be brought into effect." Further reference is made to the address of the Bishop of Newark at the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary in 1921, which reads in part as follows:

> "The work of women has broadened out in these later days in a remarkable way. They have entered nearly all the callings in life and have made many new callings. Their duties and their opportunities have been enlarged and they no longer follow but lead in all the movements to end abuses and to set the world in the right way. Many are anxious about this movement to enlarge the activities of women, lest home duties may be overlooked. . . . . We are in the midst of a great movement giving larger place and influence to women and in it we will rejoice. Women have their qualifications for making and directing public opinion as definitely as men, and we need all our resources in the contention for good manners, good morals and good religion."

Second: The Church has not developed as yet any uniform method of meeting the change in conditions which has been brought about in recent years. The notable record of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Girls' Friendly Society, and many other organizations, and the effective and constant service of women in the Sunday Schools and many other branches of the Church activities have received marked encouragement from the general and diocesan authorities of the Church. No method has been developed as yet, however, which has been uniformly adopted, providing for the participation of women in the Councils of the Church.

Third: The methods which have been tried in various Dioceses are as follows:

(a) A separate Diocesan House of Women to which questions would be referred upon which the advice and counsel of the women were desired. This plan has been tried in the Dioceses of California, Kentucky, Michigan, Milwaukee, Ohio, and Southern Ohio.

(b) The admission of women to Diocesan Conventions in full membership. This plan is in operation in the Dioceses of Atlanta, Bethlehem, Lexington, Minnesota, Missouri, Pittsburgh, Rhode Island, Sacramento, San Joaquin, and Spokane, and amendments to the Constitution and Canon making possible direct representation of women in Convention come up for final reading in the Dioceses of Massachusetts, Olympia, and Western Michigan at their next conventions.

(c) By providing that women shall be eligible for membership on Executive Councils and Diocesan Commissions. This plan is in operation in the Dioceses of Albany, Arkansas, Asheville, East Carolina, Idaho, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, Tennessee, West Texas, and possibly in others.

The Canadian Church reports that women have a right to vote at Parish Meetings, but are not eligible to membership on the Diocesan Synod. Your Commission recognizes that the question of membership on Parish Vestries must be determined by each Parish by the terms of its own Charter and Constitution, and that consequently no action can be taken on this phase of the question by the Diocesan Convention, which would have more than the effect of a recommendation.

Fourth: The arguments in favor and against the admission of women to the Diocesan Convention may briefly be summarized as follows:

IN FAVOR: (a) Because the wider work of women in the present generation culminating in the crisis of the War, has indicated that women have a real contribution to make in determining the policy of the Church.

(b) Because the political organization of American society has now been planted definitely upon a basis of equality between the sexes, and it is fitting that the tradition of our Church organization should be in harmony with the tradition of our political system.

(c) Because the essential ideas of justice can only be satisfied by securing for women an effective participation in determining the policy of the Church, as well as in the work of making that policy effective.

(d) Because the intimate knowledge which the women have gained in the practical work of the Church needs expression in the Diocesan Convention and other authoritative bodies.

On the other hand, as AGAINST THE PROPOSITION, the following arguments have been submitted:

(a) Because of the inexperience of women in matters of larger administration the change proposed is inexpedient for the present.

(b) Because any change in the exclusive male composition of the governing bodies of the Church ought to commence in the Parishes, so that there would be no change in the Diocesan Convention until there had been developed an experienced group of women representatives.

(c) Because there are fundamental mental differences between men and women which can best be utilized by providing expression in separate organizations for the peculiar gifts and special excellencies of both.

(d) Because the admission of women to the Diocesan Convention might result in the withdrawal of men from the feature of the work of the Church to which they now do give their time and interest.

Fifth: After full consideration the Commission is of the opinion that there has been developed in the Diocese of Pennsylvania a loyal, earnest and effective group of Churchwomen, whose participation in the Councils of the Church would be of great aid and benefit. We also find that where the separate House of Churchwomen has been developed it has not met the special necessities of the situation, because it does not provide the opportunity for the development of the common consensus of opinion by mutual argument and counsel. Moreover we find that among a large number of the leaders of the Church-women, the idea of a separate organization with limited powers serving as an auxiliary, does not seem adequate to meet the existing situation. We believe that the present trend of thought will result eventually in the total elimination of sex qualifications in all departments of the Church which are open to lay activity, and in recognition of this tendency we believe that the Diocese of Pennsylvania should be prepared to make some practical contribution to the solution of the question.

Sixth: As a practical matter, however, the Commission feels it to be highly important, during the transition period before this stage of absolute equality is attained that there should be a limitation upon the proportion of women which may be sent as delegates to the Diocesan Convention. It is probable that such a limitation would not be needed after a few years, but in order to prevent any break in the continuity of the policy of the Church, and in order to provide opportunity for the development of leaders in Church policy among the women, as well as among the men, we feel that the legislation to be taken by this Convention should be permissive rather than mandatory, and that it should permit of the election of not more than one delegate in three from the women. It is not the thought of the Commission that a woman delegate should come as the representative of the women of a Parish; it is rather the thought that the best qualified people of the Parish, regardless of sex, should be chosen.

Seventh: Nor is this perhaps the chief good to be hoped for: such action by the Convention will stimulate similar action in the Parishes also; and the Commission believes this to be greatly important. Christian people have come increasingly to see that the Church must work devotedly for the realization of the Kingdom of God on earth. And as an agency to this end the local parish or congregation is a unit at least as important as the diocese,—probably indeed more important. There is no question that women have more time to give than have men, to the daily local work of the Church; no question that they consequently have more experience and more knowledge of what that work is and what it demands. Yet, as things stand, the Church, in its parish units, is deprived of the contribution which they might make to the effectiveness of its work and the adequacy of its policy and ideals. The Church, we believe, will remain far less powerful for good than it might easily be, until its direction and administration represents much more completely than is now the case, all the energy, experience, wisdom and aspiration of its membership.

The Commission, therefore, presents the following recommendations:

FIRST: That the proposed amendment to Article IV, Section I of the Constitution, which now reads:—

"The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Laymen" so as to make the same read:—

"The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Lay Deputies" be ratified and finally adopted by this Convention.

SECOND: That the Convention recommend to the Parishes that for the present, in those Parishes which will act upon the conclusions of this report, that not more than one Lay Deputy in three shall be a woman.

THIRD: That the Convention recommend to the Parishes that they take such action as is necessary to amend parochial Charters and Constitutions, so as to bring the qualifications for membership in vestries into harmony with the proposed amendment of the Diocesan Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary to the Bishop

My dear Sir:

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has appointed a Commission, of which the undersigned are officers, to consider the question of the relationship of women to the Diocesan Convention, in all of its aspects.

We understand that your Diocese has already adopted some plans looking toward the wider usefulness of women in your Diocesan work, and we beg to request that you will advise us, as follows:

1. What has been the action of your Diocese in this matter?

2. In the judgment of your Bishop, how have these plans worked out in actual practice? Do you contemplate any extension of the same in the near future?

3. From the experience of your Diocese, would you favor a separate Diocesan House of Women, or direct membership of women in the Diocesan Convention?

Please give us your reasons for the course of action which you recommend.

We will much appreciate a reply by November 10th, and beg to assure you that your help in this matter will be of great value to us.

(Signed) FRANKLIN SPENCER EDMONDS,
Chairman

PHEBE B. PANCOAST,
Secretary

I am deeply interested in this matter and shall be personally grateful for all information sent in response to this request.

EXHIBIT B

Diocese of Albany: Local option in allowing women to vote at annual elections of Parish officers. Admission of women to Diocesan Convention never considered.

Diocese of Arkansas: "Our present plan is in accordance with Church traditions, men in official positions and women working in harmony with them."

District of Asheville: Women vote in Parish meetings for Parish officers. When Bishop and Council is organized it is planned to give women the right to hold positions on it.

Diocese of Atlanta: Women recently made eligible to election on vestries. No women ever sent to Diocesan Convention although permitted by Canon.

Diocese of Bethlehem: Canon has been changed to make women eligible to membership in vestries and conventions. So far the change has been put to no practical test.

Diocese of California: Here, where the House of Churchwomen has been most successful, the summary of opinion is as follows: During the last few years there has been a growing feeling that women should have some part in the legislative work of the Church. Two years ago Bishop Nichols appointed a committee to consider the whole question of the status of women. After the Lambeth Conference, the Bishop came to the conclusion that women must be admitted to the Convention. At the last Convention it was voted that women should be given the right to vote in Convention, definite action to be taken at the next meeting. It is not felt that there will be any serious loss of interest in the work of the Church on the part of the men, rather that a stimulus will come from the presence of the women.

Diocese of Connecticut: Women eligible as voting members of Parish but not to hold office on vestries or in Convention. Present system working well.

Diocese of Dallas: No definite action yet taken, or in prospect.

Diocese of Delaware: No action yet contemplated.

Diocese of East Carolina: Relationship of women to the Diocesan Council to be considered at next meeting. Women members of the Executive Council.

Diocese of Easton: No action yet. May possibly be discussed at next Convention.

Diocese of Florida: Women have voting power in parish meetings and may be appointed "assistants to the vestry." May introduce resolutions to Diocesan Convention through Woman's Auxiliary.

Diocese of Fond du Lac: Women have voting power, but are not eligible to vestries or Convention. No further action contemplated.

Diocese of Georgia: Action indefinitely postponed.

Diocese of Harrisburg: No action yet taken, or in prospect.

Diocese of Idaho: Women appointed to the Executive Council. In Convention the women and men meet separately, coming together for "joint sessions." No further action contemplated.

Diocese of Kentucky: House of Churchwomen in successful operation. No change contemplated.

Diocese of Lexington: Canon amended to make women eligible to membership in Convention and Vestries, but not to the Standing Committee. No necessity for House of Churchwomen since other plan works very well.

Diocese of Long Island: Question never discussed.

Diocese of Maine: Amendment making women eligible to vestries and Convention frequently voted down in Convention. Women have voting power in Parish.

Diocese of Maryland: Women not eligible to Convention. Bill presented to Legislature to make women eligible to vote and hold office in Parishes. No action in regard to Diocesan Convention ever contemplated.

Diocese of Massachusetts: Canon changed to admit women to membership in Diocesan Convention, but must be confirmed at next Convention. Work of women in Church Service League makes House of Churchwomen superfluous. Women members of the Executive Council.

Diocese of Michigan: House of Churchwomen recently established, but has not been in operation long enough to judge of results.

Diocese of Milwaukee: House of Churchwomen in successful operation. Meets in joint session with the men, but no legislative power.

Diocese of Minnesota: Customary for a number of years to elect women delegates to Diocesan Convention.

Diocese of Mississippi: Women sit on Executive Committee of the Diocese, but not in Diocesan Convention. House of Churchwomen never considered.

Diocese of Missouri: Women eligible to Convention on same footing as men, but few sent as delegates in actuality.

Diocese of Montana: Action on question of establishing a House of Churchwomen to be taken at next Convention. Question of eligibility of women to vestries will probably come up at the same time.

Diocese of Nebraska: Women work through Church Service League.

Diocese of Newark: Question to come up for vote at next Convention, but issue doubtful.

Diocese of New Jersey: Women not eligible to Convention, but are eligible to Parish Councils and Diocesan Boards.

Diocese of New Mexico: Woman's Auxiliary has voted in favor of an House of Churchwomen. Women at present have vote in Parishes and serve on Bishop's Committees by appointment.

Diocese of North Carolina: Women may vote in Parish elections.

Diocese of Northern Indiana: Women elect delegates to Provincial House of Churchwomen, but no such Diocesan organization in existence or contemplated.

District of North Texas: No action, since women have voted against either an House of Churchwomen or membership in the Convention.

Diocese of Ohio: Change in Canon to admit women to membership in Convention voted down last session. Diocesan House of Women meets with Provincial Synod.

District of Oklahoma: Women not admitted as delegates to the Convention, and such action not contemplated. In old District of Eastern Oklahoma women were made eligible to Convention, and at next meeting of the Convocation the women outnumbered the men four to one. On motion of the women the word "male" was re-inserted in the qualifications for a delegate to the Convention. The women of the Diocese express themselves as perfectly satisfied with the present arrangement.

Diocese of Olympia: Amendment to permit women to sit as deputies in Diocesan Convention to be presented at next meeting and will probably pass. House of Churchwomen in operation.

Diocese of Oregon: Women have voted against membership of women in the Diocesan Convention.

Diocese of Pittsburgh: Canon changed to admit women as deputies to Diocesan Convention, but few elected.

Diocese of Quincy: Finds it very satisfactory to have two diocesan meetings each year, one of women and one of men. No demand for membership of women in Diocesan Convention.

Diocese of Rhode Island: Women admitted to membership on vestries and in Diocesan Convention with "altogether satisfactory results."

Diocese of Sacramento: Since organization of the Diocese women have been eligible to sit in the Diocesan Convention as delegates, with successful results.

District of Salina: No action yet taken, or contemplated.

District of San Joaquin: Women eligible to vestries, although none as yet elected, parish offices, membership in Diocesan Convention, and to all Diocesan offices where a man is not specified by the Canon. Works very well and interest in Convention on the part of the men not affected by the presence of women.

Diocese of South Carolina: No action taken or contemplated.

District of Southern Florida: No action until after September, when it is expected the Missionary District will become a Diocese.

Diocese of Southern Ohio: House of Churchwomen in successful operation, but at next Convention a change of canon to admit women to sit as lay deputies will probably be made again. Women have not asked for the franchise in parish elections.

Diocese of Southern Virginia: No action, since the women have made no request for further representation.

Diocese of Southwestern Virginia: Question not yet arisen.

District of Spokane: Women eligible to Convention, vestries, and all positions. In practice no women on vestries, or on the Council, but this is not premeditated. Full admission of women to office works well.

Diocese of Tennessee: Women permitted to become members of the Executive Council, but none as yet elected. Sentiment in favor of wider usefulness for women growing in the Diocese, and will probably result in direct membership in the Convention, and not in separate House of Churchwomen.

Diocese of Vermont: Women may vote in parish meetings, but are not eligible to office or to Convention. Woman's Auxiliary voted in favor of restricted representation of women in Diocesan Convention.

Diocese of Virginia: Committee appointed to study the question, but has not yet reported.

Diocese of Washington: In District of Columbia women may vote in Parish Elections, and it is expected that the Legislature of Maryland will this year grant the same privilege to the parishes in the Diocese outside of the District of Columbia. Women not at present eligible to Convention.

Diocese of Western Massachusetts: Committee to report on question at next Convention, will probably recommend the admission of women to the Convention, and to serve on vestries.

Diocese of Western Michigan: Amendment admitting women to the Convention to come up for final vote at next Convention and will probably pass. Women eligible to vestries.

Diocese of West Texas: Women not admitted as delegates to the Diocesan Convention, but may sit as members of the Executive Council.

In other words, out of 63 replies received, opinion was divided as follows:

In 10 dioceses women vote at parish meetings.

In 10 dioceses women are eligible to vestries, Convention, and all offices.

In 3 dioceses women are eligible to vestries only.

In 11 dioceses the question is to be voted on the next Convention.

In 23 dioceses no action has been taken.

In 6 dioceses an House of Churchwomen is in successful operation.

MINORITY REPORT

While in accord with much that is said in the majority report I cannot concur in the conclusion reached as to the admission of women as delegates to the Convention. That there has been developed in the Diocese of Pennsylvania a loyal, earnest and effective group of Churchwomen admits of no doubt whatever, but it does not follow from this that it is wise at this time to admit women as delegates to the Convention. Some of this group of loyal Churchwomen do not think so, and many more are doubtful. What position the majority take we do not know, but certainly there is no consensus of opinion among them.

Reference is made to Resolution No. 46 of the Lambeth Conference which reads thus:

"Women should be admitted to those Councils of the Church to which laymen are admitted and on equal terms. Diocesan, Provincial, or National Synods may decide when or how this principle is to be brought into effect."

Whether or not the Counsel of the Conference is to be accepted as a goal to be finally reached, the responsibility for action at this time is clearly placed upon the local body. This is recognized by the Majority in their proviso for limited representation in place of the "equal terms" of the resolution, and it would be doing nothing more if the Convention should decide that the "when" is not now for the admission of any women delegates to its body. What should govern in the determination of the question is plainly given in these words of the Encyclical Letter of the Lambeth Conference. "We feel bound to respect the customs of the Church, not as an iron law, but as results and records of the Spirit's guidance. In such customs there is much which obviously was dictated by reasonable regard to contemporary social conventions. As these differ from age to age and country to country, the use which the Church makes of the service of women will also differ. But this use will be further determined by a more important consideration. It is the peculiar gifts and the special excellences of women which the Church will most wish to use. Its wisdom will be shown, not in disregarding, but in taking advantage of the differences between women and men." There are differences between women and men; and it is because of these differences that some work can be better done by men, some better by women, and some better by both together. Just in which category the work of the Convention should be placed is not clear. It is not clear to the women of the Church. In the comparatively few cases where the Women's Auxiliaries have taken action it has been oftener adverse than favorable. The great majority of the women workers are at present unable to reach any conclusion. The Bishops of the Church, judging from their replies to the letter sent out by the Secretary of the Committee, a resumé of which is attached to the majority report, are in the same condition of unreadiness. Nowhere has a general judgment been reached, a judgment as to what is best for the Church. In the face of such a condition it does not seem wise to take any definite action at this time, as to the admission of women as delegates to the Convention. A wiser plan would seem to be to approach the subject gradually and to test our steps as we go—to expand the powers of women in the parish—to allow the men and women of the congregation to directly make choice of delegates to the Convention—to admit women on equal terms with men as delegates to the Convocations, and to membership on the Board of Missions. All this should be working effectively before we are asked to take action as to the Convention. In my judgment it is inexpedient to take any action at this time upon the question of the admission of women as delegates to the Convention.

APPENDIX U

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

AN ANALYSIS OF THE MISSIONARY BUDGET FOR 1923.

The Budget for 1923 submitted herewith by the Department of Missions for its work in the Diocese, is $333.71 in excess of the Missionary Budget for 1922. In several instances smaller appropriations have been required for 1923 than for the present year, while some other appropriations have been increased where the work seemed to demand it, and the reductions and increases have about balanced each other.

These changes, and the reasons for them, are as follows:

Convocation of Chester: Part of the appropriation was reduced, but $1180.00 was added, $200.00 for the maintenance of an automobile used by a Missionary, and $980.00 to assist The Rev. Allen Evans in his care of the Mission at Moore, which makes the total appropriation for 1923 to the Convocation $562.00 more than for 1922.

Convocation of Norristown: The appropriation for 1923 is $2340.00 more than for the present year, the increase being necessary to bring the salaries of Missionaries up to the canonical requirement, and for automobile maintenance.

Convocation of Germantown: The appropriation is $2463.34 less than for this year, due partly to the fact that certain Missions have become self-supporting.

Convocation of West Philadelphia: The appropriation is $1899.96 less than for 1922. The major portion of this reduction is due to the self-support of one Mission.

Convocation of North Philadelphia: Here the appropriation is $1355.00 in excess of 1922, which is required to meet over-due taxes on the property of one Mission.

Convocation of South Philadelphia: There has been a reduction in the appropriation, but the increase brings the total to $800.00 in excess of the present year. The increase represents $1000.00 for re-establishing the work in the neighborhood of the old Church of the Evangelists.

An appropriation of $500.00 to the work of Convocations is made for the repair of automobiles used by Missionaries.

Racial Work: A saving has been effected in the Colored Work resulting in a reduction in the appropriation of $1294.99 over the present year, notwithstanding an appropriation of $500.00 for a new Mission at West Chester.

For the work among the Italians $3350.00 more is allowed in the Budget for 1923, the greater portion of which is to provide for the new Mission in Kensington, and for an additional worker in South Philadelphia.

For the Jewish Work $1000.00 more has been provided to meet extra expenses in maintaining the Hebrew Christian Synagogue.

Because of financial assistance received from the Welfare Federation $1000.00 less is required for the Galilee Mission.

Other appropriations in the Budget for 1923 are practically the same as for the present year.

The Second Annual Report

OF THE

Department of Missions

OF THE

Executive Council

To the Executive Council:

The Department of Missions considers that one of the most encouraging aspects of its report this year is the number of Missions in the Diocese that have become self-supporting Parishes, and this too in a year of depressing financial conditions.

The Church of St. John the Evangelist, Third and Reed Streets, whose services several years ago had been discontinued and whose work was about to be abandoned, has been revived by the present Rector, the membership increased to more than 700, the buildings thoroughly repaired, and the congregation has voluntarily assumed entire responsibility for its own support.

St. Barnabas' Church, Haddington, and St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, have also given notice that they will relinquish the financial help given by their Convocations. We commend their example to other Missions in the Diocese where, we believe, the strength of the work would be greatly increased if the people should bear all of their own expenses.

In the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, which was opened in the old rectory of the Church of the Advent on February 25th, an important step has been taken by the Church in this Diocese for aggressive evangelistic work among the Jewish people, and it should attract the interest and hearty support of all our people.

At the suggestion of the Executive Committee, the Department appointed a committee to take supervision of the work among the Hungarians in this Diocese.

Special attention should be called to the progress which has been made by the Committee on Church Extension. In less than a year's time the committee has increased the amount received from each appeal from $1800 to $3100. The number of subscribers to this fund has been increased to 706, representing 147 Parishes and Missions. One Parish in the city has 87 subscribers from whom $439 is received at each appeal.

As it is very difficult to increase the number of subscribers to this fund without the aid of the Clergy, and as this fund offers, at the present time, the only definite and regular means whereby new missionary work in the Diocese can be undertaken, and older Mission stations can be provided with needed equipment, the Department of Missions asks all Clergymen in charge of congregations to encourage their people to become subscribers.

It is the opinion of this Department that the work of some of our Missions, especially those in the suburban districts, has been seriously hindered by the too frequent change of the Missionaries. In considering a call to some other field, a Clergyman should not forget that he owes something to the Mission which he is serving, as well as to himself and his family. It is believed that, with the increase of the salaries of all Missionaries, there will be a longer tenure of office in most cases.

Appropriations

The Department of Missions has made several special appropriations this past year, part of which were not contemplated in its budget. A gift of $250 from the income of the George C. Thomas' Fund was made to the Mission at Edgely for the improvement of its basement, while from the same fund $2000 was appropriated to assist in the erection of a parish house for St. Gabriel's Mission, Feltonville. For re-establishing work in the neighborhood of Eighth and Catharine Streets, $1000 was appropriated.

Important Resolutions

Several resolutions were passed by the Department which are of sufficient importance to include in this report. They are as follows:

(a) That Missions and aided Parishes shall not incur any indebtedness for additional buildings or improvements without the consent of this Department; and that sub-committees of this Department shall secure the approval of the Department before making contracts for new buildings or improvements for aided Parishes and Missions.

(b) That before taking any steps to prepare plans or engage an architect for new buildings for Missions or aided Parishes, the matter shall first be presented to the Convocation, and by Convocation referred to the Department of Missions, and that the Department shall receive a report thereon from the Commission on Church Building before recommending it to the Executive Council for action.

(c) That all aided Parishes and Missions be requested to place in the custody of the Trustees of the Diocese all moneys or securities representing permanent or endowment funds, and funds given or bequeathed to them for special purposes; the same to be used and applied for the purposes for which these funds are now held, or, in the absence of any special trust, the income to be paid to the proper authorities of the Parish or Mission for general purposes.

At this time replies have been received from 42 of the 63 Missions and aided Parishes in the Diocese in response to the last resolution.

New Buildings and New Work

Among the most important improvements required by the Missions of the Diocese, if they are to do the work expected of them, are the following: Church buildings for Trinity Mission, Collingdale, and the Mission of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; a parish house and rectory for St. Giles' Mission, Sixty-ninth and Chestnut Streets; parish houses for St. Ambrose's Mission, Howard and Ontario Streets, and St. Gabriel's, Feltonville; and a rectory for the Mission of the Incarnation, Drexel Hill.

There is need of a new Mission on the Boulevard in the Northwood section.

The Department believes that priority should be given these undertakings.

Convocation Reports

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER.

THE DEAN'S REPORT.

There has been a steady, though not rapid, growth in almost all the Missions of the Convocation.

With the increase and stabilizing of Missionaries' salaries, it is hoped that the tenure of office of the Missionary will increase. Too frequent changes are very depressing and detrimental to missionary work.

With the recovery of the health of the Rev. Mr. Ricksecker, the work at Darby is again assuming its old-time activity. The loyalty of the congregation both to its Missionary and to the Church is in every way commendable. The Mission has passed through a trying period but it has done it with great honor.

Trinity Mission, Collingdale, after a period of prosperity has again lost its Missionary. It is hoped that, with a new appointment, it will again enter upon a period of great activity.

Eddystone has been put in charge of the Dean. Since March 1st regular services have been conducted by a lay reader from St. Paul's, Chester, and the celebrations of the Holy Communion have been in charge of the Rector. A Sunday School is regularly conducted and a Women's Guild has done good work. All services are gratuitously rendered and the Mission has been of no expense to the Diocese.

The Rev. Mr. Pugh has resigned Advent, Kennett, and taken charge of St. Giles', Stonehurst. Hitherto the services of this Mission have been rendered by the Rectors of adjoining Parishes. It was felt that the work had reached a point in its development when it needed the service of its own Missionary.

Prospect Park is showing renewed strength as a result of the inspiration and work of the Rev. Allen Evans, and Highland Park and Drexel Hill are substantially advancing. The cottage meetings instituted by the Rev. Mr. Holcombe of Honeybrook are meeting with great success and are bringing the Church to the homes of the people.

St. Mary's, Warwick, has been joined to a Mission in the Diocese of Harrisburg. It was not large enough to engage the entire service of a Clergyman and there was no Mission of our Diocese near by. By agreement, we pay the share of the Missionary's services.

Parkesburg is still most acceptably served by the Rector of Trinity Church, Coatesville.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA.

THE DEAN'S REPORT.

The Missionary work of West Philadelphia has gone its somewhat even course through the past year. The Mission of St. Barnabas has decided to ask for admission to the Convention as a Parish at the Convention this year. St. Titus' Mission has suffered much from unemployment present and the removal of a good many people. Rev. H. M. G. Huff has held things together there in good shape during this crisis and, with the betterment of economic conditions, will have prepared the way for the appointment of a permanent Priest-in-Charge.

The Mission of the Holy Comforter continues to give a good deal of concern to the Convocation and the Department of Missions. The church building is in a dreadful condition, and absence of any hall for social work makes it a most difficult problem. The question of merging with another Parish in the vicinity has been discussed but nothing definite has resulted so far. The direct issue before the Church is this: If it is decided that a work can successfully be maintained, and ought to be maintained, there at that location, then the Diocese must take steps to procure buildings suitable for the work. This will be a very expensive proposition. There is a good rectory but all the other necessary buildings must be provided by the Diocese. And the second proposition is: that if the site is not considered proper, then the buildings ought to be disposed of as soon as possible and the equity, however small, form the basis of a union with another Parish. This matter must be settled definitely one way or the other in the year 1922.

All attempts to found Missions at those most needed points, 57th Street and Springfield Avenue, or thereabouts, and at Wynnefield, have utterly failed so far this past year. Those responsible for the Church's Mission in West Philadelphia feel this deeply, but cannot accept the responsibility for this failure to start work at these two points.

THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Dean's Report.

The one outstanding fact in our missionary life is that the church of St. John the Evangelist has again become an independent work.

This church had been closed, and was about to be given up, when the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry took charge of it. Under his vigorous and able administration the Parish has been built up so strongly that on January 1, 1922, it voluntarily relinquished Convocation aid.

A glance at its figures below will show that it has a strong and vigorous life.

The Chapel of the Transfiguration is again experiencing active life and interest.

St. Sauveur has had new friends raised up to help it, and under the consecrated and godly leadership of its Rector is doing its work as well as may be under adverse conditions.

L'Emmanuello has a good statistical report. Dr. Richardson, head of the Italian Committee, is much interested in this work. Mr. Della Cioppa goes on doing his difficult work well. The work among the Italians has many discouragements peculiarly its own.. It is hoped that we shall soon have an additional woman worker among the Italians scattered in large numbers throughout South Philadelphia.

Work may soon be undertaken in two or more new places in the Convocation. At present they await further investigation and determination.

The Woman's Auxiliary continues to function helpfully, aiding the work of the Convocation in every possible way.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA.

THE DEAN'S REPORT.

The regularly established missionary work of the Convocation of North Philadelphia is being carried on with increasing prosperity, while some of the older work being done by organized Parishes is fast becoming missionary in its character, and may soon require outside aid.

The work among foreign groups is becoming a very important factor in any missionary enterprise; and while it is under the direct supervision of a separate Diocesan organization, it must claim the attention and sympathy of all the Parishes within our Convocational bounds. The Poles and Rumanians, as well as the Italians, are being ministered to, and one of the outstanding pieces of missionary work recently undertaken is the Hebrew Christian Synagogue established in a part of the property of the one-time Church of the Advent. This work, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Zacker, promises to bring forth fruit in the near future. It is unique in the United States, and it deserves the earnest support of the Church in the whole Diocese.

The work of St. Nathanael's Mission is growing stronger each year, and the Mission ought to have generous help in accomplishing several important projects before it shall become a self-supporting Parish. Among these is the building of a proper addition to house the very excellent organ that was secured recently from a Parish in Germantown. The instrument cannot be installed until such a structure is added to the present church; and a good organ is sorely needed to make the services as attractive and dignified as they should be.

St. George's Mission recently celebrated the twentieth anniversary of its Minister-in-Charge, and took account of its steady growth and acquisition of equipment.

Emmanuel Parish, on Marlborough Street, laid the corner-stone of the new building, which is now almost completed, and which will take the place of the older one, whose condemnation as unsafe laid such a sudden burden on the old Parish. There is every sign of vigorous, renewed activity there.

One cannot speak of the work of this Convocation without making prominent the work of the Woman's Aid. It has given timely help when most needed, and has enabled the Missionaries to carry important projects to their completion. The women are now planning to give help to the Italian Mission in Kensington, and to the Hebrew Christian Synagogue.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN.

The Dean's Report.

The statistical reports from the Missions of the Convocation reveal that they have about held their own in the number of Baptisms and Confirmations and have made considerable progress in self-support.

Zion has become practically a self-supporting Parish, with a substantial building fund, and June 1, 1922, will see completed the nave of a new Church building in one of the most interesting parts of the city.

St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, will become a self-supporting Parish early in 1922. A thorough canvass has been made of the neighborhood, resulting in many new members and largely increased gifts for parish support and for missions.

With the close of the year St. Andrew's, Somerton, returns to the care of St. Luke's Church, Bustleton.

St. Barnabas' has dedicated a new pulpit in memory of the forty-one members of the Mission who have died since 1904.

Two new stations have been started by Priests from the Country Centre Mission, one at New Hope and one at Wrightstown.

St. Gabriel's is on the priority list for a parish house; the architect is working on plans and other friends are endeavoring to raise the necessary money; some is in hand and more must be secured. Such a house is greatly needed and we hope and expect that construction will be begun in 1922.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN.

The Dean's Report.

In looking back over the year 1921, although a critical year in some aspects, yet I believe that the most difficult periods have been safely passed.

Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, was combined with the Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, in Bucks County, and although the two Missions are in different Convocations, yet geographically it is possible to have them both administered by one Clergyman. The Bishop appointed the Rev. William J. Wilkie, who had for several years been in charge of the field at Quakertown. In the early months of the year he maintained his residence in Quakertown, but on the first of June he moved to the rectory in Lansdale, and is now well established. With the aid of a lay-reader, Mr. Wilkie is able to give both Missions ample supervision and frequent services. The property of the Mission at Lansdale is in need of considerable repair, and for this reason the members of this Mission have been unable to increase their contribution to the support of the Missionary.

It is gratifying to feel that Mr. Wilkie has been so favorably received, not only by members of Holy Trinity Mission, but by the whole community, and we believe under his capable leadership, the Church will make a decided advance in its claims upon the loyalty of the members of our Church in Lansdale. With this increased loyalty and deepening of the spiritual interest, we believe that the material improvements needed (which will cost a considerable sum) will be amply attended to.

In that part of the Convocation in which are located the two Missions of The Advent, Hatboro, and St. Anne's, Willow Grove, the early part of the year was not marked with any decided results. The members of both Missions maintained a remarkable loyalty, and on the appointment by the Bishop of the Rev. George Woodward Lamb, D.D., formerly of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, we have been able to note a decided improvement in both Missions. Dr. Lamb and his family went to live in the rectory at Hatboro in September. The people have quickly answered his appeal, and from every aspect the outlook is distinctly encouraging. In December, through the generous aid of the Bishop, and several of the Parishes of the Convocation, with the loyal support of the people at Hatboro, we were able to supply Dr. Lamb with a Ford car, which increases very materially the efficiency of his work. There is every indication of a healthy normal development of the spiritual life of both Missions.

At the Epiphany Memorial Mission at Royersford, the work is still being successfully carried on by the Missionary, the Rev. William Roberts, who has been in charge for some years. From a material point there may be some reasons for discouragement, but these are not real. Royersford has been very seriously affected by the unemployment of the past year, but there is no evidence that there is less loyalty, and we believe that there has been progress. Through the earnest and hearty co-operation of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, the mortgage of the rectory has been reduced to $800. With this burden and responsibility lifted from the members of the Mission, it has given a distinct encouragement to both the Missionary and the members of his Mission. Mr. Roberts has been taking care of the inmates of the State Institution at Spring City, across the river from Royersford.

Holy Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, has been, during most of the past year, under the direction and supervision of Mr. George H. Randall, Associate General Secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The conditions here seem to be more or less stationary. Mr. Randall has done exceptionally well, and at great expenditure of time has sought to draw the relatively few people together. From a spiritual point he has, with the aid of a Clergyman each month to administer the Holy Communion, ministered to the spiritual needs of the people. The financial aspect of this work is not so encouraging. During the past year the Treasurer of the Convocation has been acting as Treasurer of the Mission.

The Woman's Aid of the Convocation, under the leadership of Mrs. Kent, has been one of the great powers of the Convocation. Through their efforts the mortgage on the rectory at Royersford has been cut in half, and we believe the time is not far distant when they will entirely extinguish this debt, which has stood for twenty years.

Although not a Mission of the Convocation, we rejoice that the Rev. Charles F. Scofield has been appointed Rector of St. James', Perkiomen, and we look forward confidently to a strong Missionary influence generating from this ancient Parish, and extending up through the Valley of the Perkiomen.
